GEORGE WILKS.

Calle Mayo, 1.

The Standard's apology.

When ignorance is bliss it is folly to be wise; such is the school-boy's refrain, and it is pity that all Editors are not bound to keep it constantly before their eyes. It happens that our particular friend the "Tribuna," not well understanding the easy flexibilities of our Anglo-Saxon tongue, has fallen into a strange error and poured unmitigated abuse on our unpretending and amiable journal. We are charged with ridiculing the country whose bread we eat, and attacking the conduct of Mitre's troops. Our horror of the luzaca sea has been too often expressed, to admit the idea that we have any sympathy for Saa or his myrmidons. On the contrary we look with confidence to the hero of Pavon, whom we have defended from the attacks of his own press. For this end our article of yesterday demands a clearing up of some particulars in Flores' despatch. Far from accusing that General of inhumanity, we have said, and repeat it, that "Laprida y Marin" may attempt to retort the crimes of Saa on "their" captor, but it can never be said that "they met the fate of Aberastain, since on the contrary" they have been well treated when "captured." Who, that has common sense, can suppose us capable of comparing the bloody affair of Pozos against which we have so often raised our voice, with the recent feat of arms. In the former we find a National Commissioner with peace upon his lips enter a Province with savage hordes, slaughter his enemy, who were arrayed in self defence, and butcher (under his own eyes) unarmed prisoners. Flores is admitted by us a gallant officer, and the Cañada Gomez, on his execution, will bring no stain; for, he and his officers exempted themselves to spare the Federal troops when victory had declared for him. It is true he surprised the enemy, of whom he killed a large number, but let us remember, this is in open legitimate warfare, which permits surprises, ambushes & hoc genus omne. If Flores, or any other, had suffered the butchery of prisoners, neither the omnipotence of the Vireas nor the terrors of a dungeon could prevent us from repeating the cry of horror we raised after the affair of Pozos. We do not eat our words nor flinch from our strict duty as leader of a public organ; and if our readers would know why we have not joined in the secret cry that Cañada Gomez has been another Pozos, let them learn the details of our late action.

The regiment of Machado after the battle of Pavon found 40 of their wounded comrades with their throats savagely cut by the beaten enemy, and as is natural, these men vowed to wreak an equal vengeance upon the murderers. It may be, readily supposed, that in the ardor of pursuit and with so dire a memento, this regiment would have been annihilated the foe; but, for the honor of humanity and glory of Buenos Ayres, the officers and general threw themselves between the pursuers & the fugitives, saving the lives of all who surrendered to them.

No doubt the same insulting scribbler, who makes an offence to call him Porteto, would hang us for doubting his courage during the war. But we have such reliance on our foreign friends, and on the sanity of the natives to dread that we shall become the butt of a parcel of half-fledged school-boys who make a living out of the echo of their great father's name. The usual bullying bombast of our Herculean colleague makes him imagine that others are liable to misconduct themselves, as he did when the Government was obliged to kick himself & his imps into the street.

Let the Editors of the Tribuna consider themselves especially excepted when we profess the utmost regard for the people amongst whom we live. It is true we gain nothing by the natives and owe them nothing, but the courtesy of life obliges us to consider as hospitality the permission to live in the country. It may be the charms of society in Buenos Ayres are sarcastically enhanced by our opponent, but he displays alike his ignorance and bad taste when he refers to our birthplace with a sneer, as if we were born, in a mud-hole, of bog-trotting parents. The appeal to foreigners, to put us down, is in vain: our columns must be made of the right stuff when our Weekly issue exceeds -600, and our daily 250. Thus 2,000 of our papers are read per week, while our sickly contemporaries [whom the Tribuna elevates to the rank of being our rival] cannot count one-fourth that number, unless indeed a certain friend takes 300 at a time, as some still think. But one short month ago, one of our editorial brethren threatened us with silent contempt, yet we are still flourishing while he has sunk into obscurity, leaving his late journal as a sepulchral monument of blighted hopes and misguided efforts.

News of the day.

The Railway question is pre-eminent in interest, and there is every reason to expect the Southern Line will be passed into law. The Landed commission of the senate having summoned Mr. Lumb and one of the Engineers to their sessions it is clear that the project has received from them a preliminary acceptance. The "Nacional" follows to the tune of the "Com. Times" in fiercely attacking the enterprise, but, strange to say, the Tribuna has taken a right view, abandoning the cause of its American protégé.

The brig "Juan Americano" (Yankee Jack) lately purchased by Government has received the euphonious epithet of "Cordoba" and will carry 4 pieces of heavy metal. A writer in the "Tribuna" advises the passing a law to prevent liabilities for specie within the province. There is a letter from Pedernera to Vireasero in which the former counts on Urquiza's assistance after Dr. Derqui's flight. Government has also purchased the S. S. "Marquez de Caxias" for 3,000 doub. coins. The Chamber of Deputies has postponed the Western Railway project. News from the interior states that Taboada has assembled 2,000 men to support our cause in Santiago. The usual serenade in the Plaza commenced last evening and will be repeated every night from 8 to 10. The Espigador S. S. is about to run to Rosario, as the new steamer Villa Salto will ply on the Uruguay. Gen. Gelly has received a splendid military library direct from France; the works are beautifully bound. On Wednesday at the University, but talented and esteemed. Don Ricardo Gutierrez and Don Juan Chacabaz passed a brilliant examination, the former in Nat. philosophy, the latter in Jurisprudence (4th year). The former is known for his literary labours, the latter as having accompanied Paz in his Cordoban expedition; Sr. Gutierrez is brother of the excellent Dr. Gutierrez, Mitre's secretary.

FOREIGN MISCELLANY.

The gold field of New Zealand had suddenly become very productive. About 300,000 ounces had been received in Sydney in one week, and 700 ounces in Melbourne. This was magnified into 7000 ounces, and several steamers were at once laid on for Otago.

The Treaty of Commerce begins to work. A Boven paper states that there are in Havre 100,000 tons of English goods waiting for carriage to Paris, and we learn from Lille that English goods are also pouring into France by way of Belgium.

Letters from China to the P. R. Union state that the festival of Corpus Christi has been celebrated with great pomp in the Catholic cathedral of Peking, and that afterwards a procession paraded the streets.

A concordat has been published between the Pope and the President of Italy. It creates an archbishopric of Hayti, and four bishoprics. The Pope is to nominate, and a special article allows the selection to be made from the white race.

Sir Henry Bulwer has given his small steamer yacht to the Sultan's eldest son. His juvenile highness took personal possession, and seemed delighted with his property, rummaging cabin, engine-room and fore-castle with the liveliest curiosity and satisfaction.

THE ATLANTIC COMPANY.—The Prince Albert screw steamer of the Galway line was sold last week to a Spanish company, to run between Cadix and Havana. She will be replaced by a powerful steamship, suited to the requirements of the G. W. service. The Columbus is being re-riveted throughout; the bottom plates are being doubled, and sheet bulwarks built, or rather a fore-castle to extend near the foremost funnel. The following changes are reported as being immediately contemplated in the directory:—Mr. Malcolmson is to retire from the chairmanship, to be succeeded, we believe, by Mr. Gurney; and Mr. Robinson, a director connected with Mr. Malcolmson, for Mr. Chapman, who is well known to the banking interest.—Galaxy Press.

COLLIERIES.—The total number of collieries in Great Britain at present is estimated at 2,654; of these 1,433 are in England, 235 in Wales, 405 in Scotland, and 71 in Ireland. In 1857 the coal produce of the United Kingdom exceeded 65,000,000 tons. The value at the pit's mouth of quantity annually raised is estimated at 16,700,000, and its mean annual value when consumed, at about 20,000,000. Besides this sum, it is estimated that the iron extracted yearly from the coals raised is worth, at the mouth of the Thames, 14½ millions sterling. The total capital invested in the trade is supposed to exceed 18½ millions sterling. In 1851 the number of persons employed in our coal mines was 219,000 at present there are a quarter of a million.—Mechanics' Magazine.

General Reynolds reported to the War Department that he had had a successful engagement with Confederates during the month of 27th of August. A large number of Confederates were killed, and many horses and cattle captured. It was reported that the Confederates had withdrawn behind Manassas.—General Buckner is reported advancing further into Kentucky, collecting arms en route. Richmond Hospital is reported to contain over 12,000 patients. The southern papers confirm the report that the Confederates had abandoned Ship Island. General McClellan had issued an order that the penalty of death would be inflicted on soldiers found committing depredations. The Federal government had chartered all the Vanderbilt steamers fitting out at New York, as transports.

A report from Western Virginia states that a battle was going on at S. Wall's Mountain between Cox, Floyd, and Wixie, in which the latter was being defeated. Reports are circulating that the Confederate General Buckner, with 5,000 troops, threatened an attack on Knoxville, Mo. The Richmond papers say 250 Federal prisoners were sent to New Orleans on the 24th ult. The Northern Light from Aspenwall, bringing nearly a million of treasure, arrived this evening. Washington affairs appear not to be materially changed.

New York, Oct. 5.—There are unmistakable indications of a battle on the Potomac within the next two days. General Sherman supercedes Anderson in Kentucky. It is reported on good authority, the Federals have chartered the gunboat Fanny, captured inside Matanzas, near Bonaville Island. Several vessels are loading at Havana with ammunition for the Confederates. Hopkinsville, Kentucky, has been taken possession of by some 800 or 1,000 Confederate troops. A letter from Ex-President Buchanan strongly advocates prompt, energetic, and united action for the support of the Union. Details have been received of the abandonment of Fort Stanton by the Federal troops, and the proclamation of Colonel Taylor, Acting Governor of Arizona, declaring the secession of that territory. An attack on the remaining forts in New Mexico was considered imminent.
