Au Angle Argentlus Voteran Michael Morgan, a native of Dro-more county Down, Ireland, aged 70 years, brings the following lamentable statement before the public and the Government. He came to this country in the year 1825, and worked as a n the year 1020, and worked as a paker until 1827, when he was seized by an Argentine press gang, and taken on board the war-schooner Pepe. In 14 naval engagements, under Admiral Brown, against the Brazilians, he wounds, and was sent to bosnital where he combined a months At this time half a year's wages was due to bim, and his comrades also recived $1900 silver, prize money. zealous official; one who would jump

Morgan was never paid either way or prize money, although he had rendered such signal service; among other deeds, he built the Magazine at Martin Gureia, and helped Captain Drummond to build the wharf at same place. For the blood lost in the serplace. For the blood lost in the service of this glorious Republic, the disabled veteran received, in the year 1852, the mountient beauty of 200 ragged paper dollars (30 shillings.) Thirty-six years have clapped, but poor Morgan has been left in poverty and misery, a standing memorial of Argentine ingratitude, and a proof of the neglect of the British Government and nts, respecting our poor countrymen shraad. The British Minister entit the delt was so long due that he could do nothing. The British Consul gave him a letter to the Prime Minister, the latter referred him to the Minister of War, and the last to General Mitter finally, after two days étiting on a cold stone, he was taken to the Treasury and rewarded with the 200 paper dolfars!

At the time of impressment Morgan and sixteen others were not in the and sixteen others were put in the stocks and carried aboard. This out-rage on British subjects was passed over with the same indifference that at present attends the wanton nurders of Irishmen daily occurring in the camp. Poor Morgan has been initing sheep for several years on the estancia of D. Pelis Alzan, but of late his wounds and old uge have rendered him too feetile for each labor, and he has now

RIOT AT THE CHAMBERS

Yesterday, before the appointed hour for opening the Chambers, an enormous crowd, Cestimated at 3000. ssembled before both entrances. The Cocidos were in a large majority, and some disorder was momentarily ex-pected. The streets were impassable, and some youths carrying pistols were arrested by the police. When the doors were opened the Pueblo Club (Coidos) at once seized all the galleries and a few Crudos also succeeded in and a lew Grades also succeeded in getting seats. Some one (said to be Golonel Mateo Martinez) cried out, 'Muera el Club Pueblo,' and an overwhelming and sarcastic 'Viva!' was
