great importance, not only to the buyers of all those lands at the rate of $10,000 mg per league, but also to the squatters, tenants, &c., who have lived on these lands for years and who now find the land bought over their heads by means of the National Government 'boletos'.

ordered back, as they could not be expected to resist Shanigue. We all thought that General Villegas's expedition had cleared all that part of the country, but as the national troops withdrew, the Indians came back. It is not at all improbable that Shanigue's powerful tribe will attack with the Chilian Indians on the other side of the Andes. Advice from Chile report very serious invasions in the South, and it is more than probable that the same attacks will be renewed on the Argentine line. The question is whether the troops sent to Mendoza and to San Rafael are in sufficient numbers to cope with the savages.

The National center Bahia Blanca arrived at Patagonas, without her commander, who, as our readers know, was killed at San Antonio whilst perforating the ground in search for water. The pilot knew nothing of the catastrophe until some time afterwards, when he landed and saw a few lanes and two corpses. Colonel Obligado arrived at Chol-es-Choi in the little steamer Rio Negro on the 29th inst.

The Indians in Bahia Blanca attacked four leagues from the town a chasque who managed to escape, leaving baggage behind; he states that invaders numbered 15, and that near the Saueo Chico he met a man, wounded by lance thrusts, who had left that morning in a dog-cart; the man was not quite dead, and was removed to Mr Arnold's estancia. There are four bands of Indians about the Saueo Chico, and the alarm in the neighborhood is general.

The Bolos men passed yesterday in counting the killed, wounded and missing after the Battle of the Liquidation on Wednesday. It was a speculative Antestiz. The proportion of wounded to killed, beats even Sadowa, while the number of patrons missing is something awful.

The President of the Republic received a most interesting letter from Colonel Ochoaga about the Naqueu valley and its superb lands. He describes it as a paradise of beauty and fertility, with one serious defect, however, viz, that it is a never-ceasing gale of wind, strong enough to blow one's teeth out, and the dust is so terrific that the Colonel could hardly see to make a hasty sketch of the country he was riding through.

I was just making preparations to start for the camp, when I read this morning 'High Life in Bahia Blanca', and was terrified! Now would you be so kind as to answer me one question? Would you send your wife and children to an Estancia, distant one league from town in Azul, just now, and feel quite safe from the Indians. Excuse the liberty I take, but your answer is of great importance to me and will settle the question.
