Food taken in the mouth and acted upon by the digestive organs of the stomach is converted into Glucose and Peptone, and in these forms enters the Portal vein. Here, by the action of the liver, these substances are converted into a form of sugar and pass out of the liver by a large vein, called the Hepatic vein, into the great circulation. The new material now formed serves two purposes: viz. NOTE—Will continue to take charge of rovincial cases after the removal of Prov. Madame Teodorini, the prima donna Alsina 78. of the Italian opera company, was kind enough to call on us yesterday, but we were not "at home." A musical subscriber tells us that she is sure to take our public by storm, as we have not yet seen here such a finished combination of dramatic and lyric powers as this gifted lady possesses. Ex-Governor Rocha will infallibly require a Holman's Liver Pad if he accept any more invitations to banquets. The Provincial Engineers are now preparing one for him on the 25th Would it not be better to stop all this feeding and present Dr. Rocha with a solid silver dinner service, or some other lasting testimonial. We have to thank Mr. Frederick Benelishe for an important little work, of which he is the author. Under the heading of "Noticias Fisico-Historicas, sobre algunos lugares de la República Argentina," this work gives Perteneciente a la sucosion dei us an insight into the mineral riches of some of the Upper Provinces, especially La Rioja. The customs of the inhabitants are also well brought out, and are not devoid of interest. His description of the "Gauchos del Norte" is Alambrados y potreros fine in the extreme.
