We always had a high opinion of the manager of the line. The truth, and nothing but the truth, is his motto. The truth in this instance is of the most disagreeable kind. The English manufacturers

Our highly esteemed colleague, La Union, says that the inevitable reaction, from the inflection of the prices of city property, due to the ocean of paper money now afloat, has already begun. Change expressed astonishment at the height which gold speculation had reached. It was known early that favorable telegrams had been received from London about the loan, and that the final papers were to be signed to-day; and, they said at the ring that it was to counteract the favorable effects of this news on the gold market that a ring of speculators had combined to buy all the gold that was offered in the market. At one o'cleak the reasons in the market. At one o'clock the roar and din was such that even the marker at the board could hardly catch the voices of the brokers; the hall was crowded with merchants who tried to read the figures on the board, but found it impossible. The Government broker entered and was at once enveloped; he sold 800,000 just as fast as he could mark the lots down and then retired. The National Bank broker took his place, he also was surrounded and in the twinkling of an eye sold half a million. The Provincial Bank broker with his towering voice also sold freely, but the ring was like a sponge absorbing every patacon offered, and when the bell rang out patacon offered, and when the bell rang out at half past one, notwithstanding that over 3,000,000 were sold cash, so insatiable was the speculation that prices, that in the morning were 141.50, closed at 145.50.

If we add the business of afterhours to that of the official ring we shall find the total gold liquidations for to-day will amount to 25 millions at least.

At the close of the ring gold ruled very firm, but dropped at once from 145½ to 144 on a few sales made by a well known German broker. Then the Government broker entered and offered to sell more cash at 144, but there were no buyers, and so the market held at two o'clock.

Respecting the much talked of loan business in London we hear that although everything connected with the affair goes on smoothly enough the business cannot be concluded before 10th Dec.; at least, such is the tenor of the advices from Paris.

Three thousand more emigrants arrived yesterday in Montevideo in two Italian steamers; they will at once proceed to wash their clothes at Martin Garcia, where four thousand have finished their term and go up the country today. The rassenger and emigration movement at present going on in the R. Plate surpasses all our previous expresiones.

Captain Michael Carroll, of the Uruguay, paid us a visit yesterday. He reports politics ment at present going on in the R. Plate surpasses all our previous experiences.

Captain Michael Carroll, of the Uruguay, paid us a visit yesterday. He reports politics very calm and business active. The extension of the Uruguayana Railway is being rapidly pushed ahead, and all the sugar men up there in the best spirits. They will all make money this year. Every trip he makes up the river he has his fine steamer loaded with a general import cargo of which, he says, a great part goes to Brazil. Business has been active in hides, holders having met buyers' views, but a dull tone continues to prevail for most other articles. From to-day the large wine firm of Messrs

Mr. Gilmour, our popular Argentine Consul-General in Liverpool, took leave of President Roca to-day and starts to-morrow in the Royal Mail for England. Mr. Gilmour has Roca to-day and states

Royal Mail for England. Mr. Gilmour has ever proved an active, good, and influential representative of this country in England, helping every enterprise started in England to foment and develop the industrial resources of this country, and his high and influential position in England, renders him a most desirable representative for the Republic in Liverpool where the name and credit of a the disposal of over 43,000 hides at auction.

The particulars of the public sales held on 28th inst. are as follows:

The battle of the gold market held up to five o'clock, when at last the bulls beat a retreat and prices ruled sellers 142 for end of month o'clock, when at last the outs beat a letter and prices ruled sellers 142 for end of month and 143 for to-morrow. Through some mistake in the accounts, the liquidator had to call an auction to buy 40,000 m/n, which were bought in at 144, 143.80, and 143\frac{14}{3}. Some of the oldest brokers on 'Change and men who have been attending the Bolsa for the last 30 years admit that they never before remember such a day on 'Change. Fully five millions gold were sold cash, and at feur o'clock one party lent 700,000 for a month, getting 2\frac{1}{2} for the pass: 70,000 Series G sold at afterhours at 83. The general belief is that the liquidator has his safe overflowing with gold, and some well-known party holds at least two millions of gold, which it will be difficult to get rid of at present prices.
