It is an axiom that whenever Governments undertake to meddle with what properly belongs to private enterprise, they make a mess of it. This landing of emigrants should either be left to the steam companies that bring them; or the Government should contract with an Agency (such as the "Express" for the service.

The State Powder Factory at Rio Cuarto is slowly becoming of some use. They make blasting powder there now.

The Deaf and Dumb Asylum is still in embryo. The plans for the building are ready, but must wait till Congress meets in May next for approval. The latest news from San Nicolas is that what the inhabitants call their port there is rapidly filling up with mud and will soon do as the mole there did on Wednesday last, disappear. This may be of moment to San Nicolas, but the river trade of the Republic will survive the shock, and the world at large won't feel it.

A well-known estanciero went near losing a lot of cash on Thursday night by taking up his quarters in an aristocratic "posada" at the corner of Calles Temple and Suipacha. A feilow sleeping in the same room got up and rifled his pockets while he was snoring like a whale; but, thanks to the suspicions of the landlady, he was caught and had to disgorge the plunder.

We see a bit of Horse-Marine news in the papers: A stiff bill for forrage for the horses of the Resguardo What on earth can a maritime department want with horses? Lord Dundreary himself could hardly solve this puzzle.

The new system of sixpenny tele grams at home has already necessitated the employment of 2,800 persons and the expenditure of over £500,000. More than 850 miles of poles and 21,000 miles of wire have been put in position, and sub-marine cables have been laid to the channel islands. In the city of London four miles of additional pneumatic tubing and nearly a thousand new operating instruments have been brought into use.

Some of our colleagues promise their subscribers Christmas presents, in a literary shape. We cannot afford any such mistaken principles. The proper thing is for subscribers to make a present to their respective newspapers. Up to a few years ago this sound Christmas custom prevailed in Buenos Aires, but only a select few of more's the pity.

At one time it threatened to develop here; but it was found to be too risky; and now any amount of change can be knocked out of a tram guard at a second's notice.

"J. M. J" writes a capital letter to the Patria on the immense damage caused in the camp in flocks of sheep by the hordes of dogs to be found at nearly every estancia and 'puesto' in the country. The time has long gone by when dogs were of any use to the shepherd, and the Legislature should deal with the dog plague in the camp. ON 'CHANGE December, 18. Gold ..... 141.50 Cedulas A .....

The gold market ruled tolerably firm to-day, and from the general appearance of the mar-ket we should say that gold has been oversold is being bought back, and will soon again be on its own level. The first news on 'Change was from London announcing that 12th January is the day fixed for the launching of the Argentine loan. This corresponds with our previous advices, namely that at the end of the year, it is not usual in the London market to bring out a new loan. Gold opened at 141.30 and closed at 141.50 sold, opening at 141.30, rising to 141.60 and closing at 141.40. For January 31st 260,000 opening at 141.30, rising to 141.50 and closing at 141.30. At the Land Office a note has been received from the Engineers' Department, with the copy of a project for the construction of a "barrera" in Avenida Sarmieto to facilitate the passage of trains. The success of the project would proteet the public from the great danger daily incurred by the tramways in the Calle Rivadavia, near that incense-breathing quarter occupied by the "basura" yard.
