Thursday, September, 22nd 1892. All expected the gold premium to rise ike a rocket this morning on the trength of all the subversive business oing on at Santa Catalina; but the market viewed the affair with great indiference and the gold speculation ruled weak. About nine thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at $53.20, rose to $53.30, and losed at $53 20, say 226.88% premium. Two hundred sovereigns were sold at $16.50 and $16.54, say 228% premium. vere steady and active; over one hunend of October. Nothing could be more remarkable than the equaminity with which the market received the news of the plot in the Santa Catalina barracks. For weeks the market has been on the "qui vive", owing to the many alarming rumors spread daily with the greatest industry in the hall; revolution was freely talked in sail in a stand-from-under-feeling, yet, when the news bursts that a score of officers have been arrested, that the greatest excitement prevails among the troops at Santa Catalina, that at any moment the climax may be reached, the market with admirable sangfroid shrugs its shoulders and looks with contempt upon the whole affair. Can it be that the shrewd and well-informed overspeculated, and that the event was disounted? If so a headlong fall must undations, the premium would have have been stationed at the portals of the Bolsa, the market stands still—"empa-cado"in fact. When all thought the market to be in a nervous state of susceptibility, likely to bolt in a panic, we discover that it has suddenly grown callous and indifferent and treats the Santa Catalina hub-bub as much ado about nothing. It is to be devoutly hoped that the market takes the correct view of this strange situation, which affords such a contrast as that of President Pellegrini in a box at the Politeahis regiments. It reminds one of 1880, when Madame Durand was singing the "Tardi si La" of Gounod to the delighted ears of Dr. Avellaneda on the very
