PROMPTITUDE

IN PAYING DEATH CLAIMS is a vital matter in Life Assurance. Ready money, to be serviceable in an emergency, must be paid at the moment when it is most needed.

Of the 2,376 death claims paid by the Equitable during the year 1891, amounting to $8,946,152.72, nearly FIVE MILLIONS were paid within a day of the presentation of proofs of ueath, while nearly four-fifths of the whole amount was paid within ten days of the receipt of steady after such a degringolade as we witnessed on Monday and Tuesday. There is no denying the fact that speculation has much to do with the headlong fall in gold, but there is still a far more powerful factor in this gold business and that is—confidence. The country has outlived the demolishing patriotism of politicians and now breathes more freely, confident that the reins of power are in good hands; the political horizon is quite clear and implicit trust is placed in the experience and common sense of the Minister of Finance. Bankers and merchants, capitalists and dealers, brokers and traders, all believe that the market is on the mend and all are kicking the gold ball with a vengeance; the only danger ahead is too rapid a fall or

The whole market is being swept into the eddy and ere long we shall see the average volume of gold business at the ring swell to two millions. The speculative irit has been roused and dealers are nging fast and furious for all dates. the bearish sledge-hammers are BINDERS AND BINDER TWINE hard at work pounding away at the pre-mium, and to-day the bears scored another signal victory in the very midst of a bullish reaction. Yesterday afternoon the bullish rally began, and strong covering operations followed; at a late hour yesterday the premium was quoted on the kerbstone at 193% and the market opened this morning under the impression that the covering operations would continue and that the premium would rise; the heavy fall of the last two days and the heavy differences confirmed this belief, and all the shrewd dealers and wiseacres were rather puzzled when they saw the whole gold fabric give way under their feet this morning, and sink two points. The force of the bearish current must be indeed very formidable when, in spite of heavy coverng operations, invited by such heavy differences, the premium cannot keep
