To English Capitalists.

Owing to our having already disposed of, 94 leagues of the 10 leagues of camp in Entre Rios, referred to in former advertisement, headed 'Important Notice,' we did not renew it until we had received instructions from the owner. He now informs us that he will sell another 10 leagues inlots to suit purchasers, preferring these to be English, Irish, Scotch, or American. The whole estancia has an area of fifty square leagues. The quality of the camp is excellent, with abundance of water. As the lots sold are not yet selected, we would advise parties interested to use all despatch in applying: of the 'land' isold; '64 leagues have been purchased by Englishmen.

Medianeros with sheep or with capital to buy, will also be received upon very favorable terms. At present no more 'puesteros' are required.

OUR EXPORTS IN PAST YEARS.

WOOLS.

The remarks which we published yesterday, respecting the exports of wool and sheepskins, gathered from M. Guerin's valuable statistical table. caused so much attention and remark that we purpose to give our readers : further insight into the history of our wool trade, as afforded us by the same authority.

We go back as far as the year 1832 when we find that the total export of wool that year amounted to only 914 bales. In the year 1840 it increased to 3.577 bales, being an increase in eight years of 280 per cent. We jump now ten years a-head, and find that in 1850 the wool export amounted to 17,069 bales, being an increase in those ten years of 380 per cent. In the following five years the increase was less marked, the export of 1855 being 27,676, an increase of only 62 per cent. The following years $855 and 1856. the export was 33,273 bales, an increase of 20 per cent. on the previous year. In the years 1856 and 1857, the export was 27,835 bales, being an increase of 14 per cent. For the two following years, that is to say 1857 and 1858, and 1858 and 1859, we experienced a severe commercial crisis, which temporarily paralysed exportation: the total wool exports for the two years amounted to 84,225 bales, which gives an increase in the two years of say 11 per cent. The years 1859 and 1860, will long be remembered by sheepfarm ers as peculiarly disastrous, owing to the great drought or epidemia; and for the first time in the history of our wool trade, there was a diminution of at least 8 per cent on the previous year, the export being only 38,482 bales against 42,112 the former year 1860 and 1861 witnessed a revival The camps were good, sheep increased over the previous year. The years 1861 and 1862, were again very disastrons years in the camp. Our readers cannot fail to recollect the fearful dust-storms, &c. The exportreturns prove all this, for the bales 65,216, being a slight increase of 53

So identified are our countrymen with the sheepfarming business in the the River Plate, that the prosperity of the one points to the success of the other. Perseverance, industry, care and sobriety are the great requisites without which none should attempt to embark in the business. In the commercial history of Buenos Ayres w have instances of men who have risen, we may say, from nothing, to be leading capitalists and merchants of this place, but in the camp there are millionaires who, but a few years back, were peones and ditchers, and happy indeed are we to observe that our prosperous countrymen who have thus risen to independence and wealth by their own untiring exertions, have proved themselves fit for the position to which an and the export amounted to 60,892 unexampled prosperity has elevated

THE DRAMA IN MONTEVIDEO.

(From our Correspondent.) Montevideo, Oct. 25th, 1865.

Last evening we had again in Solis one of the performances which are apt to give to a stranger to these countries, who witnesses them for the first time, a most unfavorable impression of the degree of social culture in Montevideo.

Far be it from your Correspondent to venture on a criticism of such a foolish production as what was presented to the public last night under the euphonious title of 'El honor de un blanco y el corazon de un negro.' The critic would sum up all he would have to say in the short sentence, ' stale, flat and unprofitable.' Our comedians, or writers for the stage, as Shakspeare says, 'do imitate humanity most abominably!' The piece is indigenous in its origin and character. The 'mis en scéne' represents first a small 'rancho' supposed to be somewhere in the department of La Florida, and there is an estanciero who falls beneath the nutes I was obliged to keep my hands felonious stabs of a gaucho's long up to save my face expecting at the same time that my horse would come kuife. The negro servant somehow to the ground before myself. I was gets hold of his money, filling one incontinently with anxious doubts as to his probity, or whether the 'corazon del negro is in the right place. The est movement: all this time their fall of the curtain leaves one to ruminate on the matter. In one of the ma- and a torrent of insult and abuse heaped my following acts (there are six ' cuadros') the stage is suddenly invaded by a set of very questionable looking told them if they meant to rob or murcharacters in 'ponchos' and 'chirripás,' who are understood to be 'vecinos' and 'tenientes alcaldes' in the peaceful mission of embargoing the murdered man's brother's property. Just in the nick of time the negro-who, by ceive any one in authority except the the way, has a strong resemblance to individual with the false beard who to their time we had only the colossal anything but a negro, rather like, I was far the worst of the party and should say, Mr. Dickens's Quilp, in the never ceased heaping insult on insult Old Curiosity shop-makes his appear- for at least fifteen minutes until his of wild beasts and apes, and even these ance to rescue his now new master from chief came in view. Seeing the great interest felt by all lasses of society in the Humboldt Institute of National Science and Discovery since its foundation, we think the public will be glad to learn of its first scientific labors. We allude to a geological investigation of the so-called Pampa formation in the Argentine Provinces and Banda Oriental, and a sys tematic collection of the fossil-remains found in those countries and in the on the subject, we now give the law in bone-caverns of South Brazil. The basis of these studies may be said to date from the scientific discoveries of Darwin and Burmeister who have contributed most interesting subjects in the field of Palacontology. Previous chiderma' and 'Edentales' as well as in a very incomplete form: but thanks to their careful and systematic investigation on the spot where such discoveries have been made, we shall be able not only to fill up the deficiency in classes already known but also with accuracy to arrive at the fossil remains of many of the most minute species of justified in doing so in this case and animals which have never before been revealed to the vulgar. Such a result will facilitate in some manner a comparison between the species of Ante diluvian animals no longer extant with those now existing, which will be of much value in the theory of the Creat late professor of Natural Science in the Model-School of Berlin, who is favorably known in the world of letters for his valuable works on Palcontology murdered and robbed. The peones, of course, were astonished and frightened, and on recovering found that a huge ærolite had fallen in the midst of the herd.

We expect still further details from ent in town, who was an eye-witness of this appalling catastrophe: we have written to him on the subject and expect his answer to-morrow.

An English gentleman who has been resident in this country many years, mentioned to us another extraordinary occurrence. He sent in a troop of catttle from Arrecifes to town: when the troop arrived at a place near the Cañada de la Cruz, near the Capilla del Señor, a storm came on and the his fly he parted company with his capataz was killed by the lightning. The uncle of the gentleman in question had also sent a troop of cattle from his estancia, which was in the far South. On the same day and hour, shot him through the heart. This, and whilst driving the cattle across an arroyo, the capataz was killed also by this affair, which has rid the country lightning. This strange coincidence happened many years ago.

BANK MAUA AND CO. BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emperiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenoe Ayres that there are very few Merihanta who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence. The Bank of Mana and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already cashs any large amaunt.

The same deposited in that most important immunion are sold a very large amount.

These adountages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immonse number of cloring exclusing, sowking men, and servents of all closess and conditions, who are equally interested in patting their excitings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in some of most, sickness, or old ago, instead of opending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivalities.

The Bank of Mana and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montroides, one offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bahk at No. 103 Calle Cangalle, from Nine am till Three pmon Week Day, and on Sundays and Holidays from Tanam. to Twelva m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mana and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The name of Mana and Co. are also persuaded that this new vranch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood
