I have had the honor to receive the notes of the 13th and 16th inst. giving account of the conference held with the President of Paraguay and the resolution adopted in accord with the representatives of the Allied Powers, referring the matter to their Governments. Although Y. E., in quality of General-in-chief of the Argentine army, is invested with the necessary powers to treat with the enemy, submitting whatever arrangement for the approbation of your Government, nevertheless I enclose you a plenipotentiary document in form, for your use whenever you think fit, advising you at the same time that you are hereby authorized to depart from the Triple Alliance in anything that is not of transcendental importance, or derogatory to the honor or interests of the Republic, provided our Allies also Octaviano, special Brazilian envoy, guay, will have equal powers, and if they have not, Y. E. ought to desire them to solicit same, in order that they may be at liberty to act according as the events of the moment may require. The Government, moreover,

Gentlemen:

As I am aware that the columns o your popular paper are ever open in the course of progress, I feel a little extra courage in thus trespassing on your valuable space, in order to hold up to light a glaring injustice.

having sufficient knight-errantry, still left, I cheerfully complied. It was a wet, raw, unpleasant day; however, we got on famously all the way from Chascomus till we arrived at Calle Lima, when stern fate stared us in the face, as without any ceremony whatever, we were landed, as usual, in the first open street, left to shift for ourselves as best we could, and fight our way through exhoritant coachmen, ambitious peones, dirty faced policemen, lottery ticket sellers, and the usual gaping crowd to be found waiting the arrival of a train. I determined to foot it, and appealed to my fair friend to do likewise and not be victimized, which she willingly assented to, although weighing seventeen stone; so we started, and after a considerable amount of puffing and blowing, we arrived at our destination with the feeling of people who had been ning to realise themselves, and nu cent under any other house; also, remainder of notifies the Allied Governments of taken off a sinking steamer. HOW TO LIVE.

It is an easy thing for a sick man to drug himself, to death with acid mineral purgatives; but it is equally within his power to recover health and strength, by resorting to the only cathartic which restores the disordered functions of digestion, secretion, and expulsion to a healthy condition, without enfeebling the system in performing the care. In BRISTOL'S SUGAR COATED PILLS he will find this grand desideratum, sought for and longed for, from time inmemorial, in vain. They are commended to the dyspeptic, the constinuted, the bilious, the rheumatic, the dropsical, the debilitated-in short, to all who suffer from any disease proceeding from, or connected with the stomach, the liver, or the bowels, as a means of immediate and permanent relief. In all disorders of a chronic character (especially in Rheumatism, Liver Complaint, Dropsy and Neuralgia), or where sores or eruptions are a feature of the disease, BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA, for lish brokers having turned round and enriching and purifying the blood, sold heavily, both on time and for may be used with indefinite advant-These gentlemen during the age in combination with the pills. week bought largely, and were regar-ded as bulls; they now offer to sell, keep-in any climate. The native Indian tribes were probably the discoverers of its wonderful medicinal virtues, as it is among them where we first find it in use; later we find it prescribed by the leading College of Physicians in Berlin, and much prized by them as a safe and reliable remedy for some of the worst forms of Pulmonary Affections. Our own experience since we first introduced our Pectoral of Amachuita now over ten years ago, has been of Anacahuita, now over ten years ago, has been of the most satisfactory and encouraging nature.
