The following is a summary of the latest news from Europe:

ENGLAND.

The House of Lords had entered on the discussion of the bill for altering the Coronation Oath in respect to that part of it referring to the maintenance of the unity of the Established Irish Church.

The debate was an animated one, the Conservative peers relying chiefly on the strict wording of the oath, on the other hand the Liberal lords maintained that the oath of the Sovereign being prescribed by the people, it should not be considered binding against their will. Little doubt is entertained but that the oath will be changed.

The majority of the clauses of the Irish Church Abolition Bill have been voted without a division, but the Conservative party were defeated on each occasion of the House dividing.

All the amendments brought forward by the Tories betraying the ascendancy spirit contributed to keep the Liberal party united, and the oil! in its entirety may be considered safe.

The bill authorising marriage with a deceased wife's sister has passed the second reading in the Lower House; also that increasing the faculties of married women to hold property.

The mooted cession of Cuba to the United States has caused considerable comment in Eugland, and the Prime Minister has stated in the House that Her Majesty's Government were decidedly opposed to any such measure.

Prince Arthur, so says the Earl of Clancarty, has been very coolly received in Ireland. The Lord Lieutenant has rendered himself unpopular with the Tory classes, by declaring bimselt in favour of the Irish Church Bill, and Lord Clancarty says that this is why on several public occasions Prince Arthur has been received with oininous silence. There has been a marked falling off in the receptions at the Castle for some time past, notwithstanding the splendid hospitality exercised by Lord Spencer.

Mr. Higgs, who in his exploits and career, rivals the celebrated Redpath, has not yet been arrested. It was said at first that he had gone to America, but now it is supposed he has taken CHURCH, refuge in Spain. The amount of his embezzlements and forgeries is said to reach £150,000. He has been for many years past living at the rate of about £10,000 a year, though he was all the time in the position of a clerk at a salary of £150 a year. It is ex traordinary that this never excited suspicion in the minds of his employers. The Gas Company are said to be willing to abandon criminal proceedings, and to take their chance of a dividend from the assets, which are estimated at £30,000. The frauds were discovered by the auditor appointed by the Board of Trade. Hitherto the auditing of the company' books had been "done" by the Corpo-

Great exertions are being made in working to bring about this result.

The Republican minority again took their seats in the Chambers on the 26th ult., and contributed to pass a vote of confidence in the President (Ribero.) of St. Petersburgh. Sr. Manterola brought forward an amendment relating to Catho lic unity which was rejected. PRUSSIA.

The Prussian press unanimously praises the speech of Monsieur de la Valette in the Corps Legislatif, considering it as eminently pacific, and a ertain presage of the continued tranquillity of Europe, as France once saisfied of her strength will not interfere n the affairs of her neighbors. Count Von Bismark and the Saxon Minister M. Friesen opposed the election of a Federal Minister in the North German Parliament as dangerous to the autonomy of the German States. In concluding his speech on the nomination, of special ministers, Count Bismark said, "we must decentralize not centralize; we have all the same object in view, the greatness of Germany, but our means of accomplishing it are different; let us not increa e the the impossible."

AUSTRIA. The Emperor opened the Hungarian Diet with a speech remarkable for its pacific tone. In Vienna the Chambers discussed a bill for the establishing of national schools. Meantime the Escolta composing the garrison of Union, about 60 men, have cleared out, leaving the Government forces considerably reduced; while Caraballo is understood to have sent to the various rural commanders, such as Maximo Perez and General Carabajal, inviting them to his standard. The former possesses much influence in the Rio Negro, the latter in the department of Minas, and as yet we are unaware whether they mean 'to throw up the poncho' or declare themselves for the Government. Passengers arrived yesterday from Montevideo assure us that there is a feeling of great depression and hopefessness, as nobody thinks the difficulty likely to be soon brought to a close. The Government is busy getting uniforms, and one of the English houses was knecked up at 5 in the morning in quest of ready-made ponchos for cavalry. The diligence for Minas was stopped at the Un on on Thursday morning by the Government officials, to search [as is supposed] for any of the recusant Deputies that might be 'en route' for Florida ,but none were found. The Cerro Largo diligence met a body of men on horseback near Tala, who had two flags painted red and white; they turned out to be a party land-surveying. No signs of rebels were apparent in the departments of Cerro Largo and Minas, but an officer and orderly from Caraballo went with to have reference to that subject so despatches to Carabajal who is at vital to the best interests of the counpresent residing on his estancia near try, viz., the "squaring of the circle." In fact, the state of the market is such that nothing but the artificial demand caused by over speculation can maintain present prices. Still, there are strong buyers for June, and the speculation for that date is decidedly for the rise. The liquidation of this month's accounts is anxiously looked for. Many anticipate that on Monday it will be discovered that the bulls have re-sold everything; but the differences must be very heavy, and the losses severe.

The gre t feature on 'Change to-day was the exchange swindle. It appears that the defaulter, May, was not a broker on the Bolsa, having applied for admission and being refused. The question as to the liability of the drawers was auch discussed; but the matter after all admits of no discussion. It was rumors ed that the Magellan had arrived, but it appears there is no foundation for such a report. A special envoy to the National Government is said to have come up this morning, and the prospects of the Banda Oriental were much discussed. It was stated this afternoon that the Brazilian war steamer (flagship) Amazonas was ordered down this night to Montevideo. People here regard the revolution as a very serious affair, and likely to last for some time. What effect it may have on the gold market here is not yet very clear; it appears that specie still finds its way down there and the America takes down more to-night.

The defalcation of Lorenzo Meyers, steamboa agent in Parana, is now officially announced. It appears that he took with him $f.6,000 belonging to the bank, which he received to send down by the steamer.
