We belong to no government or opposition party; as mottoes decorated the streets along far as possible we wish to stand by the Government, and afford it the best of all moral support—an impartial yotebut there are occasions when it is just and fit that public men should know what the public say of them, and the press is useful when it fulfils its mission in this particular.

The signal misfortunes which have pefallen the poor colonists of Sauta Fé are charged to the governor of that province and the neglect of the National Executive; the opinion of the public on the matter is pronounced and unanimous, and until the Argentine Government thinks proper to espouse the cause of the farmer and copast eleven o'clock in the following lonist, it can expect nothing from the foreign residents but the most determined expression of censure.

The foreign public of the River Plate read with a smile all that appears in the papers in favour of Mr. Sarmiento and his administration, so long as the poor colonists of Santa Fé are wilfully exposed to the inroads of the savages or the depredations of the gaucho. It cannot be disguised that the apathy of the National Government in this matter has done the administration more injury than the atacks of the opposition press for the last year and a half, and not all the party. THE RACES.

If proof were wanted that the motley population of this cosmopolitan bearers of red tickets seemed to devote capital, are gradually acquiring a the greater portion of their time and greater taste for the fine old English attention to visiting a kind of 'Adulthe Lady Mayoress entertained a sport of horse racing, it might easily lam's cave,' under the Grand Stand. large company ut the Mansion House be afforded to the incredulous by the in honour of the occasion. The guests, increasing attendance of all classes at about 220 in number, included the each succeeding race meeting held by whole of the members of the Court of the Buenos Ayres Jockey Club. This Common Council, the Sheriffs, the institution though but a short time in though frequent, were less severe till officers in command of the Royal existence, and only as yet in swaddling quarter to twelve on the night of escort, the high officers of the Corpos clothes, has done wonders towards which were considered almost foregone making horse racing better understood conclusions, backers found themselves by the native population, and it can in error. The winner of the trotting not be doubted that it must soon in sweepstakes received quite an ovation its perfected form, become a national on coming in, having 'cut down' his institution and the favourite pastime of our upper classes.

The second Spring Meeting held at Belgrano on Wednesday proved, as we ventured to anticipate, a very decided success. Each event was well contested, and the novelties introduced in the shape of a trotting sweepstakes amongst the masses who lined the course in front of the Grand Stand, and for a considerable distance along the only amusement to the crowd, and no rails on each side.

The city on Wednesday morning presented a veritable 'Derby Day' aspect, partly no doubt, owing to the intense heat which kept many people within doors, but chiefly because the majority of the citizens had flitted for the day to 'fresh fields and pastures' new leaving the city to solitude and the police. Fetes had been announced at Moron, Lujan, and other suburban towns, nevertheless, Belgrano was the 'favourite,' and from about midday the human tide commenced flowing in this direction.

The 'Road' to the Downs is always charming, never more so than on such a day as Wednesday, with a tropical sun pouring its rays on the charming villas and delightful 'summer palaces' to be found along the route. The upper ten' eschew the Rail and always display the proverbial wisdom of thier generation in so doing, for who with a carriage at command, would commit himself or any fair companions to the doubtful luxury of what is facetiously called a 'first class' seat in an American railway car, even could the scrambling at the termini be accomplished without detriment to self or excellent efforts of the President in the elegant 'landau' and open barouche to the one horse gig and costermongers cart bowled cheerily along indications of a great mind, will re- from about 1 p.m., and from the foot lar the "iron horse" on the run to Bel. This event, the first of the kind that has come off on this 'track" as our Yankee friends have it, caused much interest. Mr. Keen was originally to: have driven his own bay horse, but the latter having fallen lame, his friend Mr. Alfred Lumb's grey gelding was substituted for him, quite a new and green horse, proving himself however a flyer, as he won easily, by, as nearly as we could calculate, some 600 yards. Mr. Keen drove well, and was able to use his whip, while Mr. Del Campo was evidently unable to do so, as he threw his away at the second round.

The Times, of India, states "that the discovery of D. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLO-RODYNE is a greater blessing to the human face than even the discovery of Vaccination.' This remedy is invaluable in the above discases and is indispensable to Emigrants. Travellers and Families, a few doses being generally and rannines, a jew doses being generally sufficient.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORO-DYNE.—The Right Hon. Earl Russell communitated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Chelera was Chlorodyne.—See Langet, Demandary 1863.

Supply Pure Chemicals and all new Medicinal Preparations, including the following specialities:

Pepsine, the active digestive principle of the gastric piec, an agreeable and popular remedy for weak digestion.

Powder, wine, Lozenges, and Globules.
Panercatic Emulsion, and Panercatine in Powder, containing active principle obtained from the Panercas, by which the digestion and assimilation of fat is effected.

Saccharated Wheat Phosphates, a valuable dietetic preparation for Invalids and Children, supplying the elements for the formation of bone.
Chlorodyne (Morson's), the universally approved Anodyne.

Creaste—(Caution)—From Wood Tar, of which T. M. and Son are the only British Manufactures.

Gelatine, a perfect and economical substitute Time. Colds, Asthma, Consumption, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, &c.
From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bembay:—"Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration thealth after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when all other medicines had failed."
It is necessary to warn the public against spurious imitations, which only bear the pirated name, and are deficient of the true properties of the only genaine, viz.—Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNES, as w.s. proved before Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood, in the Court of Chancery, in the case of Brown v. Figeman, when cery, in the case of Brown v. Freeman, wher Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE Extract from the General Board of Health, Lon don, as to its efficacy in Cholera:- So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this
