COMPLAINTS. Among civilised mankind there is no com-plaint so prevalent as the above, late medical statistics showing that fully one-half of nearly all the communities are to a greater or less degree afflicted with it. Under these circum-struces, it is highly important that the wenderful curative powers of

BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS. in Liver Complaint, should be made to the public.
They are in this disease, as nearly as can be said of any medical preparation,
A PERFECT SPECIFIC!

PURELY VEGETABLE.

A remedy that is precisely as represented, — is one on which the sick and siling cim utways depend. Their effect is to tone and strengthen the pend. Their effect is to tone and strengthen the liver, to stimulate it in a continuous, natural, and healthy action; to prevent torpidity, to keep the b le from cosquilating or becaming thick and sticky, which is always the condition in certain stages of Liver Complaint, being the preliminary to the formation of gall-stones—and the most exeruciating pain in their passage through the duct into the bowels.

JUDICIAL REFORM.

It would seem that at last we are in arnest about judicial reform, the bench, the bar, the press and the Government have taken the matter up: in fact it only remains for the pulpit to join to make the cry general, and we earnestly trust that preachers of every denomination will follow the example of Bishop Latimer, and preach a most ceaseless warfare against the present abuses in the administration of justice. One of the most memorable sermous of this remarkable man, was on the subject of judicial corrup. tion and bribery, and we read that it was on account of the fearless way in which this stout hearted old Hugh exposed the misdeeds of men in ermine tippets and gold collars, that the Londoners cheered him as he walked down the Strand to preach at Whitehall, struggled for a touch of his gown, and bawled "Have at them Father Latimer." In one of Bishop Latimer's sermons he said :--

"Cambyses was a great Emperor he had many Lord Deputies, Lord Lieutenants and Judges under him. It is a great while since I read the history. It chanced that he had un= der him in one of his dominions a corrupt judge, a taker of bribes, a gratifler of rich men; he followed gifts as fast as he that followed the pudding, a handmaker in his office, to make his son a great man, as the old saying is, whenever business requires, returning 'Happy is the child whose father goeth to the Conchas by the afternoon train. to the devil.' There seems to be a very bona fide desire to reform the administration of justice, but we want no halt measures; a sweeping and thorough reform is called for. Governor Castro no doubt considers that by his message to the Chambers he has done his part; nothing of the kind, H. E. should visit the Cabiido each day, and put a stop to the gambling amongst the prisoners. The lawyers, to their credit, have taken up the matter with much spirit, and judging by the names on the comeven more than the Legislature. The nothing-vox et preterea nikil. The funeral of Victor Noir was made the occasion of a great republican demonstration. The cortege numbered over two hundred thousand persons; some journalists estimated it at three bundred thousand. Many republicans desired to convey the body of the murdered man from the residence of his brother, at Neuilly-a suburb of Paris-to the cemetery of Pereslas Chaise, via the 'Place de la Bastille'; but the Government prohibited the cortege entering Paris, and decreed, that Victor Noir should be interred in the cemetery of Neuilly. the residence of his family.

On the route to the cemetery, Roche fort, who had been constantly employed writing or talking, and had scarcely slept from the moment of the assassination, became ill; he said to the brother of the deceased, with whom he walked, as one of the chief mournhearse, halted. Rochefort was lifted up and placed at the foot of the coffin, but overcome by fatigue and emotion he fainted. Some believed him dead, and again there was a tumult, and cries of "On to Paris! very properly done what was expected of it and taken up the great question of the day, Judicial Reform. On Friday three messages were despatched from the Government House bearing on this vital question. The first to the Legislature respecting an immediate reform in our judicial system; a second to the Superior Tribunal calling on it to designate the remedies for the abuses lately denounced by it; and a third to the Committee engaged in revising Dr. Dominguez' Code of Procedure, requesting the members thereof to use all possible despatch in their deliberations. The excitement caused rather increasing than otherwise, and nothing less than a thorough investigation and punishment of the guilty parties can appease the indignation arroused. The Bar held another meeting on Friday. The speeches were warm and long, but nothing further than the naming of a committee to draw up a project of the reforms re-

It may interest our readers to know that the authorities are at last about to commence the repairing of the mole. JUDICIAL REFORM.

My Dear Editor,

Hundreds are blessing you for your late excellent articles on our Law Courts.

If ever the memorable words of delusion, a mockery, and a snare, could be applied to anything, undoubt | legal. It is right that the directors of this comedly they would fit to a T, when applied pany should be made acquainted with the very to the Law Courts of Buenos Ayres. Some three years ago having some spare cash on hands I put it in a mortgage, and at the end of the year the owner of the property became a bankrupt.

At a meeting of his creditors the judge named a certain lawyer as 'Sindico.' Against this nomination a large majority of the creditors protested, ing Works with reference to the Anglo Argon alleging that the nominée was the tine Company, but we are informed that there is paid lawyer of one of the principal no connection whatever between them. In Febcreditors, and as this creditor had do- ruary, 1868, Major Rickard contracted to transfer cuments in his possession for large amounts which the bankrupt stated were not genuine, a protest-was entered against the nomination, and at a then commenced operations in another district second meeting of the creditors they As regards the mortgage held by the shareholdalmost unanimously named a 'Sindico' ers of the Compania de Minas de San Juan (1862) of their own, and requested the judge to appoint him. I believe the judge refused to do so, at all events both declares all mortgages on mines and smelting lawyers went to law and the affair was referred to the 'Camara.'

This was in Feb. 1868, I thought that at most in a week or two the Camara would decide which was to bea the Rodriguez concession having lapsed. As Mr come Sindico, I was told by my lawyer Galvan is known to have sufficient capital and to to pass round to the 'Escribano's be a very practical man, it is hoped that he will office once or twice a week to see how things were getting on, and for this bit of advice and a visit to one of the Isaac and Livingston have obtained a "mandareuniones,' I was sent a little bill for mus" against My Billinghurst, stopping his works two thousand five hundred dollars mic in Calle Juncal.

For the last two long years once or twice a week I pay a visit to the 'Ess cribano's office. What news? 'nada Señor ; todavia uo esta despachado de la Camara.' upon a reformed management. The report of the meeting of the Angle Ar gentine Mining company held last month in London, has come out per Pascal. As there seems to be some error in Major Rickard's statement a party connected with the enterprize has favored us with the following remarks :--

Some misapprehension appears to exist as to the position of the creditors of the Hilario Smeltthese works to the company within a period of six months, but owing to the obstinacy of a creditor in San Juan he was unable to fulfil this. The contract was thus cancelled, and the company and which had been transferred by them to the Anglo Argentine Company, a sentence in the San Juan Court of Appeal in Quiroga v. The immense advantages of Accounts Current we now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maná & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city * vafe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and nas

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. 3) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one
