The prisoners that escaped from the Cabildo on Sunday night were twelve days making the hole in the wall through which they got out; there must have been connivance on the part of the turnkeys, or this never could have been done.

We are happy to see in a Scotch colleague a contradiction of the report that forty-head of cattle had died in the Ariadne on her way home. Our contemporary says that all her cargo of animals arrived safe and in good condition.

CRICKET. The third annual match between the Montevideo and Buenos Ayres Cricket Clubs was played in Montevideo on Thursday and Friday last the 14th, and 15th insts. and as will be seen by the score resulted in a victory for the Montevideo Cricket Club.

Watson and Clark having got together made the score creep up right merrily—the former playing an exceedingly steady game, his 35 comprising 25 singles, four 2's and one three. While Clark gave the leather bunter plenty to do, running his score up to 15, in a manner suggestive of hundreds to come, and finally brought to grief after a splendid four. Smith's 24 was run up in an exceedingly short space of time, and was composed of two 3's five 2's and singles.

A superb luncheon was being disposed of, when M. Video began the defensive against the bowling of Smith and Clark. Getting opened the ball by making a four and looked uncommonly like making runs, when unfortunately an "error in judgment" put a stop to his mad career, and "leg before wicket" after his name. Walker played well, scoring 13 made up of one 4, two 3's and singles.

On Friday play was commenced at about the same time as on the previous day, but a change in the game soon showed itself, and Buenos Ayres found it its cost that hard slog was not the play for swift under-handed hop-skip-and-a-jump kind of bowling, for Barnett succeeded in this manner in bowling four men for 7 runs, and although we do not admire his style, he, no doubt, was most useful to his side, and certainly won the match for Montevideo.

In the second innings of the Montevideo Cricket Club it was evident that the unexpected turn the match had taken would have its effects on both sides, the batters exhibiting much better form than in the previous innings.

Darbyshire played a very plucky innings, hitting all over the ground and giving the field a considerable amount of severe work, his score of 29 was made up of two 4's four 2's and singles.

The following is the score:— BUENOS AYRES. 1st Innings. E. Lace b Banker 1

2nd Innings. E. Lace b Banker 4 H. Morgan b Barnett 3

1st Innings. J. Getting b W. Clarke 4 J. Walker b Smith 13

2nd Innings. M. Coll b Clarke 9 W. Watson run out 6
