THE COMMITTEE, R.L.R.C.

Feb. 12. THE REIGNING EPIDEMIC.

B. Ayres, Feb. 15, 1871. To the Editors of THE STANDARD.

Gentlemen, The history of the reigning epidemic in a limited part of this city proves that there has been imported from points in which it previously existed a very fatal malignant fever, contagious and infectious.

Now this disease came from Paraguay, a country where marsh fevers continually exist, and according to their severity are like our own mild intermittent, or are severe, and then are continued fevers; these diseases however are neither infectious nor contagious, nor are they to any large extent (like yellow fever) fatal, being remarkably under the control of quinine.

"In the proposed establishment of the first battalions in India would have 20 officers, 55 non-commissioned officers and drummers, and 1,030 rank and file.

"First battalions in the colonies—20 officers, 56 non-commissioned officers and drummers, and 830 rank and file.

"Second battalions at home—7 officers, 26 non-commissioned officers and drummers, and 366 rank and file.

"Third battalions at home—7 officers, 24 non-commissioned officers and drummers, and 6 rank and file.

"The writer proposes to raise sixteen entire new regiments of militia, thus we should have altogether 202 battalions, each forming the fourth, or fifth, or sixth battalion of the corresponding line county regiment, and 392 x 600—175,200, or the total strength of the militia battalions of Great Britain and Ireland on the proposed plan.

I am, Gentlemen, Your obt. servant, WILLIAM NATHL. HIRON, L.R.C.P., M.R.C.S., England, Lately a Principal Surgeon Argentine Army.

avonry locks. Disguise the fact as we may, our statesmen have pocketed the insulting circular of Gortschakoff and winked at the ditto repeated M. of Bismarck respecting Luxemburg.

"Some writers have advocated either an absolute or partial imitation of the Prussian system. Mr. Cardwell is reported to be in favor of drilling the whole rural population of England, but of not interfering with the profitable employment of the manufacturing districts.

"The regular troops of the infantry of the line consist of 108 regiments the first twenty-five of which are double battalions, and besides these we possess eight battalions of rifles, making a total of 116 first and single battalions.

"The Douro entered Montevideo today, bringing dates from Rio to the 6th inst. Up to then the Germany had not entered. Exchange 23, 3/4, 1/2 p. 330.

"The Douro took 225,000 in silver. A very important sale of land in the Plaza Onco de Seibrombe was spoken of to-day as likely to be effected at the rate of twenty patacons per square yard. This shows the great value of property in that neighborhood.

"The sales of pino for the month have been as follows: Napier, Montreal, 264,329; Oasis, Savannah, 247,610; Eastern State, Montreal, 612,491; Warrior, do, 498,060; Rivoli, do, 299,720; Ellis, St. Mary's, 246,870; Lido, Canada, 200,430; Savene, Baltimore, 68,376; Others, Montreal, 569,673; Motheay, do, 488,457; M. Helgard, do, 402,889; J. M. Tucker, Portland, 220,911; J. Heimick, St. Mary's, 88,184; Looire, Montreal, 340,200; Almata, St. Mary's, 178,444; Fielca, Sicilia, 355,309; Total, 5,061,893 Ft.

"The army which could be set on foot once this plan had been carried out would be in accordance with the wealth and glory of England, but would certainly frighten the cheese-parers out of their wits. On a war footing we should have— 60 First battalions with proper establishment and rank and file 60,000 116 Second battalions 116,000 116 Third battalions 116,000 221 Battalions (infantry) 221,000 221 Battalions (volunteers) 216,000 The whole, exclusive of battalions on foreign service, making up a total of 800,000 infantry, not including officers and non-commissioned officers, but backed up by a reserve of three millions of drilled Englishmen.

It is satisfactory to feel assured that such a force can be raised by judicious management, and a comparatively small expenditure. We have the men and the means; but events march so very rapidly in these our days, that the main question may be—"Is there time?"—Daily Courier.

ON 'CHANGE. February 16th, 1871. Ounces..... 400 Sovereigns..... 122 1/2 Patacons..... 25 Nat. Bonds..... 66 There was very little done in Bonds to-day the market, although quiet, is firm. For each nothing done. For the end-of-March $5,000 at 60 1/2.
