following telegram from London:-The capitulation of all the forts of Parié signed, and an armistice to last three weeks, which is to be put into force by land and sea; the army of Paris remain inside the city, but as prisoners of war. It is reported that Gen. Bourbaki attempted to commit suicide, and that there are very little hopes of saving him. News also received from Bordeaux says that a despatch from the Government in Paris informing the public of their resolution had been sent to several towns, and had caused a protound sensation. It several cities demonstrations had been made asking for resistance until the very last. At Loieux the population tore the despatch from the street corners that announced the armistice. At Lyons the news from Paris caused a very painful impression. The Municipality determined to resist and sent a committee to Bordeaux, composed of Hainon, Vallier and Barodet. It is very much feared there will be a great deal of bloodshed in the Provinces. 30th.—The news per cable to-day is that all the forts round Paris surrendered on Sunday, 29th; all the troops inside Paris are to give up their arms, except one division of the National Guards. The communications with Paris are for the present limited. The city is to remain surrounded, but will be provisioned. The armies in the provinces are to remain in the encampments they actually occupy. Paris is to pay a contribution of 200 millions of trancs. The constituted assembly will be convoked in Bordeaux on the 15th February. That Bourbaki's army is in a most critical position near the frontier of Switzerland; that the Germans occupied Salins and Pont-Roide. and continue advancing against Morteau and Pontalier. It is reported that Gambetta has asked his dismissal. A telegram was also received to-day from Madrid confirming the above news, and also saying that the King on the 29th passed a grand review of the army, which assembled in large troops and people.

31st.-Jules Simon left Paris for from the central government to annul the delegation of that city. It is reported General Ducrot has poisoned a long telegram from Bordeaux about

From the Plaza Once de Setiembre to Almagro the land has assumed the most extravagant value: new buildings are going up in every direction; the new hotel for the Once market is nearly finished; it faces the Lacroze tramway station; it is an unpretentious sort of place, but possibly quite adapted to the trade which it hopes to secure. There is talk of a new church in the same neighborhood which will doubtless prove a convenience. The Flores diligences ply along the macadamized road, and are nearly always full of passengers. The special pleading of some of the newspapers that I have seen respecting the last Carnival, is certainly very amusing. In my opinion neither plaintiff nor defendant advocates had seen the real sport; if they have visited try repels it, and it is only due to the electrified any special pleader composed of anything softer than stone. No man born of woman could stand aloof and look idly on the repeated assaults made on the Sir Colin Campbell battery in Santa Fe Street; column after column marched up to the breach, bravely attacked and were as bravely repulsed: the war chariots rolled past in rapid succession bearing away the wounded heroes of the battle; it is been. true, the battery was defended by as lovely a corps as ever stood in battle array.

It is, however, right to remark that the Brian Born battery was armed with a few guns of powerful effect; probably the only weapons of the sort in town: they were sent out as a sample and handed over by the importer to the Brian Boru battery.

Warwick Castle was fiercely attacked by a dozen war chariots and was gallantly defended; some of the troops in the attacking column will not soon forget the campaign of Drabble Row,

Volatile Sulpho-Carbolic Disinfectant Liquor,

Recommended by the principal English physicians of this City, for the disinfection of sick rooms and articles of clothing, &c.

It is superior to all other Disinfectant 1 iquids cleanliness, facility of application, and chemical energy.

By its simple evaporation it diffuses through

By its simple evaporation it diffuses through the atmosphere 100 times its volume of 'Sulphu:ous' Acid Gas, and a considerable proportion of Calvert's pure 'Carbolic Acid,' leaves no residuum, and produces no stain.

A perfumed modification of the above is admirably adapted for toilet use, and especially for medical men, sick nurses, and others, who are in extendence in the sick attendance on the sick.
