THE STEWART CORRESPONDENCE.

tween Dr. Stewart and his family, in the ten years from 1859 to 1869, which throw muck light upon the great Yerba lawsuit, the confiscated rifles, Mme. Lynch's bill of exchange, and such like matters. These letters are put in evidence by Dr. Stewart in defending the suit of Anthony Gelot, of Paris, (Mrs. Lynch's agent), tersus William Stewart, M.D., formerly of Paraguay, and now of Edinburgh. The correspondence comprises 155 letters.

The first letter is dated Paraguay May 16th 1859, from Dr. Stewart to his father, asking the latter to send out a Highland dress for Pancho (5 year's old), the General's eldest son, to be made after the pattern of that worn by the Queen's boys, costing наv £15.

In the close of that year the Dr. accompanied General Lopez to Buenos Ayres on the mission which resulted in £4.148 to Mr. Gelot of Paris." the Treaty of San José de Flores. Under date Dec. 10th he writes his brother Robert an account of the negotiations, adding that Gen. Lopez is reputed the luckiest diplomatist of S. America: the British merchants have presented him with a handsome album, and a banquet was given him at to Paraguay as supercargo of the Fly- by his will made at Azcurra. which, however, covers were laid for | ing Fish. only 50 persons," he then describes tried to seize her by way of reprisal them. I had to borrow the money. for British claims.

In September, 1860, he writes to his brother Robert (manager of a branch Ayres, to sell the Flying Fish if posof the Royal Bank of Scotland) ask- sible. ing on what terms that Bank will keep an open account for Lopez, and telling him not to venture in coals, as the Paraguayan Government is supplied n Buenos Ayres at $9 a ton. He advises him to find out what the ironmasters of the Clyde would charge for building steamers as the Messrs. Blyth of London charge £30 a ton, federates. and the Paraguayan Government

In the following month he mentions that he will be authorized to send for two physicians (as soon as the English difficulty is settled) who will receive £400 a year and support. He adds that he will sell his own post for £400, as he is auxious to go home in January, seeing that the Government will not increase his pay.

In January 1861 he writes his brother that Lopez considers 5 per cent. too much to charge for balances against Paraguay. The railway carriage frames arrived all right. A grand funcion took place at Humaytà; the consecration of the new church. Old Lopez is very stingy.

In March 1861 he has obtained an ncrease of pay; £600 per annum and some tartans for the Lady President (old Mdme. Lopez).

In May 1861 Messrs. Parlane Graham of Buenos Ayres have kindly invested his money for him at 101 per cent. per aunum. Remittances from Egusquiza to Dr. Stewart's father for £4,000, for railway iron. FREEMAN, Pharmaceutist, RICHARD

Is allowed to be one of the greatest discoveries of the present century. It is largely employed by the most eminent Medical Men, in hospital and private practice, in all parts of the globe, and is justly considered to be a remedy of intrinsic value, and of varied adaptability, possessing most valuable properties, and producing carative effects quite unequalled in the whole materia medica. It produces therapeutical effects which are peculiarly its own, and which are not approached by other preparations bearing the name of Chlo-

No other remedy at present known can be exhibited with so much confidence as a SEDATIVE, an ANTI-SPASMODIC, an ASTRIN-

GENT, or DIAPHORETIO. The Right Honorable EARL RUSSELL graciously transmitted to Mr. R. FREEMAN—the Inventor of OHLORODYNE—the following extract of a despatch from Acting Coasul Webb, dated Manilla, Sept. 17. 1864:--

"The remedy most efficacious in its effects (in Epidemic Cholera) has been found to be CHLORODYNE, and with a small quantity given to me by Dr. Burke I have saved several lives." From The Times, Nov. 14th, 1865:—During the last five or six weeks, the Wife of the Rev. Mr. FORBES, the Chaplain to the English Church, Rue d'Agnesser (Paris) has gratuitously administe ed

The only vegetable substances yet discovered that are really Antibilious, To the presence of which invaluable resinolds the extraordinary success of Bristol's Pills may in a great measure be ascribed. It is necessary, however, that the sick should always remember that in all diseases that have their origin in BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA, That best of blood purifiers, should be used with the Pills, the two Medicines being prepared expressly to act in harmony together. When this is done faithfully, we have no hesitation in saying that great relief, and, in most cases, a cure, can be guaranteed when the patient is not alreally beyond human help.
