MODEL LEGISLATION.

Perhaps the finest specimen of molern legislation is the rejection of the Southern Railway Bill by the Provincial Chamber of Deputies. Nothing n the extraordinary history of that de. lectable house at all comes up to this staggering vote. To place the matter properly before our readers we must go back a few years, and remind them of those happy days before the patento tax was imposed on the citizens of Buenos Ayres, when for the first time the government was called upon to make good its guarantee. Then do we recollect the cart loads of books going up to Mr. Perez del Cerro's office, the industry of the accountant, the affability of the railway clerks, and the patience of the shareholders. After immense labor the accounts were gone and accountant, railway clorks, and line, and the free use of woods and wa. even shareholders, would be undone: native perapicuity overcame the diffipay tolerably, the English system of book-keeping was, viewed in any in England with many influential per- light, a 'botheration'; a round sum sons, who received the project with to free the Argentines from the thumb would sound the guarantee for ever and ever, amou. It was all agreed on. For all future branches of this successful, but barassed company, a fixed sum of £500 was to be paid for every mile of railway finished in the province to the Andes, and shorten the vince. The high contracting parties made their own terms; the company agreed; it was all finally and satisfactorily settled, and now the deputies have taken it into their heads to unset the whole arrangement, to refuse the guarantee, refuse the £500 per mile bonus, refuse in fact everything, and finally to stop the very workmen who are employed outside on the new branch. The only motive we can discover for this extraordinary vote is that the vanity of our legislators has been touched at the outrageous go-aheadism of the English engineers. The works of the new branch have been pushed ahead so quickly, that the nearly finished to Las Flores before our august legislators have had time to consider the very preamble of the aw. At the rate things were going on outside on the track, and inside in the Legislature, there cannot be the least doubt that the line would be down to Tandil before the Deputies had fully considered the subject. The only alternative lett, therefore, was to stop the work, call into play the arbitrary exercise of authority to excuse legislative laziness, ruin the prospects of the south for the next ew years, rather than forego the mañana' system, and seriously compromise the credit of the province abroad, at a moment when that province is again in the English market as a borrower.

PURE COD LIVER OIL.

It is generally admitted by the Medical Profession, that while no remedy is more important than Cod Liver Oil, its beneficial action is too often interfered with by gross impurities. Not only is the Oil extracted from other species of Cod beside the true Gadus Morrhua substituted, but adulteration with Oil derived from other fish, such as the Shark and the Skate, is largely practised.

The ICELAND OIL now offered to the Public is of absolute purity. is free from all disagreeable taste, and is preparen by a delicate precess, from selected livers of the Gadus Morrhua only. This fish is nowhere found in such perfection as in the Icelandic Seas, and, as might be expected, the Oil is richer in essential qualities, such as Iodine, Bromine, and Gaduine, than any other, while its manufacture is superintended by a Medical Gentleman of high scientific attainments. Any one can satisfy himself [by testing with sulphuric acid] that it excels every other kind, in the possession of certain elements upon which much of the efficacy of the Oil depends.

In the Lancet, of May 25th, 1867, is this statement :-"Cod Liver Oil-The supply of really good cod liver oil, at a fair price, is one of the most pressing needs of the day. Some of the oil used by Public Institutions is wholly unfit for patients on account of its nauseous character. At the present time there is in London a gentleman, whose name is well known to most of our readers, and especially to travellers in the north, Dr. Hjaltelin, and he is anxious to make known to English practitioners a supply of cod liver oil prepared under his direction in Iceland. At the Fish Exhibition at Boulogne last year, it was regarded as the purest cod liver oil yet prepared. It would be well if practitioners would test the value of the oil so highly recommended by Dr. Hjaltelin."

CURTIS'S HARVEY'S AND GUNPOWDER.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF PARLIAMENT.

The superiority of this Gunpowder, especially for military purposes. has just been established, beyond all dispute, by the Report of the Special Committee of the British Parliament, which thus accredits its unequalled qualities:

The powder first tried by the Committee in the Boxer-Henry Cartridge, and of which they entirely approve, is known as 'Curtis and Harvey, No. 6.' Several other descriptions manufactured at the Government Factory, Waltham Abbey, have also been tried, but have not afforded the same uniform accuracy of shooting. "There appear to be difficulties, confined, it is believed, to the question of expense, in producing a powder at Eltham Abbey, in all respects equal to 'Curtis and Harvey, No. 6;' but the Committee. keeping in view the importance of maintaining the great accuracy shooting of the Martini Henry Rifle, recommend that no powder should be used for its ammunition that does not give results at least equal to those obtained in the Committee's experiments, whether such powder be obtained from the Government Factory or from the Trade.
