The constantly recurring question of a National Bank is once more before the public. The Debates, a daily paper, organ of the late minister of government, Don. Fernando Torres, goes into ecstacies on the great advantages to be derived from an institution of that nature, both for govern-

The injury done to this country by compromising its credit, and forcing into circulation the inconver tible notes of all the banks which failed some time back, will be, in the end, a greater loss of capital than the whole expenses of the much talked or nine years war. Experience may likewise now be said to have shown that a bank note circulation can sately stand only on the basis of the precious metals. A National Bank ought to be a sort of reservoir of money for supplying the wants for the trade and industry of the country, and, consequently, a National Bank must be so organized as to have the power of satisfying all legitimate demands ou reasonable terms. This, and nothing else, is the true character and mission of a National Bank. There is no mistake more common, and at the same time so dangerous, as the popular error that, the rate of interest depends on the abundance or scarcity of capital. After the discovery of the Californian and Australian gold mines, the amount of gold spread all over the world has greatly increased; the prices of this metal and of silver have fallen, but the rates of interest in the 80 Rams of 16 and 16 months' old, with fiscees of 13 months' growth, of the acclimated and unequalied race Rambauillet, bred by Mr. Letham, of the Cabans do los Alamos, Partido de Quilmes, and directly descended from the unique flock of the lete Imperial Cabans of France. Unfortunately, this world-famed Imperial Cabans has been destroyed, and the animals slaughtered during the Prussian-France War, a loss irreparable to France and Europe, at the same time that it renders especially raluable those branches of this magnificent race of Mevinos, which have attained a high degree of Mevinos, which have attained a high degree of perfection.

Mr. Latham's Flock, as is well-known, equalled the Imperial Shorp in their best qualities, while, at the same time, they possess for the River Plate Stock Breders the inestimable acranage of being acclim ted and, in the strictest sease, bred to harmonise with the natural pasture-feed of these countries.

The characteristics of Mr. Latham's fock, bred to harmonise with the natural pasture-feed of these countries.

The characteristics of Mr. Latham's fock, and the Rams offered for Sale, constitute a speciality, the speciality of the River Plate. These are—Great hardness, procurative vigor, deep square tableada carcus, on short legs, wool exceptionally beautiful and defined in character, long and free in staple and peculiarly bright and strong; thus combining all the quaities which constitute profitable Stock for Sheep farmers.
