

was brilliant in the extreme; most of the scenic displays evoked loud plaudits. The opera left the most pleasing impression on the audience, probably not a dozen persons present having ever heard it before.

has been written in this matter that perhaps nothing new can be said; and yet perhaps a reiteration of what may have been said by others in another form will not be wholly devoid of use.

of charges which might possibly be charged against Great Britain by the Tribunal of Geneva. Losses, it is there said, of which negligence is the direct and proximate cause (and it is in respect of such only that compensation could justly be awarded) are commonly not easily to separate from those springing from other causes.

Her luxury and intellectual refinement. Her wits were but too famous—Altogether, however, the bad eminence of Antioch and the invention of nicknames. It is said that the satirists of Antioch were so true to the character, and so full of humor, that they deserved more respect than any other they ever performed.

It is going on state most positively that the note has been returned. Meanwhile, it has been returned. The note has been returned.

Mr. William Kelsey jr. has petitioned the Municipality for permission to commence working at his wool washing establishment. Yesterday the Board considered the matter, and it is presumed that permission will be granted.

IMPORTANT DOCUMENT. The following important article upon the Alabama question has come out from Antiochia. It is written by the distinguished American citizen, Professor Theodore D. Woolsey, late President of Yale College, in New England. The calm and temperate views of this able American professor on a subject surrounded with so much national prejudice as this Alabama question, show that the American people are determined to take the right view of the matter, and to drive out the country clique that would drive the country into war.
