

plomatic smoke. General Mitre is off... for better, for ever in the Girondo. Perhaps no officer or patriotic... and here is a man in the Republic... the President is not a man; all will wish him a hearty God-speed.

The excursionists to Las Flores on Friday had a very pleasant though rather cold day. Creative comforts—bar hot tea and coffee—abounded... The thermometer fell as it never intended to "touch bottom" on Friday night.

The pupils of the Diocesan College of Buenos Ayres will hold a religious feast to-day in celebration of the thirtieth anniversary of the Pontifical of Pius the Ninth... The feast will be the longest in the annals of history.

that there will be no change in the wool tariff, nor is it at all desirable just at this moment, for verily no manufacturer would recall the machinery just now, because it would afford no relief, as we have shown, by way of cheap wool.

anytime since the War of 1812-15 with England, and the tariff is not a prohibitory tariff, as $5 a pound would be; but under this law foreign-grown wool is extensively imported, and more so than paid duties in the Port of New York in 1871 than in either of the years 1865 or 1866, which were the two years next preceding the enactment of the present law.

LIFE INSURANCE.

To the Editors of the STANDARD. I have noticed in your edition of today that the executor of the late Geo. Wilkes complains (according to you) that, although 10 months have elapsed since his decease, the Briton Association have not yet paid the sum for which his life was insured.

ON CHANGE.

June 22, 1872. Dances 400. Nove 1224. Naval Bonds 743. The Buenos Aires Club will give a grand ball on the 28th proximo, at the Hotel de la Plata...

THE EXISTING TARIFF ON WOOL REMAINS UNALTERED.

The New York Economist of March 18 says:—We have sound reasons to believe that there will be no change in the wool tariff, nor is it at all desirable just at this moment, for verily no manufacturer would recall the machinery just now...
