We find by the European papers that Prince Bismarck has a special carriage on the German railways, like a crown carriage.

Dozens of individuals and companies continue to compete for the city waters. Some want to disinter, to excavate, others to bury it; and all offer money for the privilege.

The National Chamber of Deputies was in session on Friday when the sad news of Dr. Castillo's death was announced.

The idea of starting a National Theatre is assuming shape. It has already got as far as the Committee stage, three gentlemen—Messrs. Nogueras, Barreda, and Escobar.

Colonel Nelson, who did his duty against the Santa Fe rebels lately, is sent in a little bill of 4000 pesos, not for doing the duty, but for being 'done' by the rebels.

THE APPLICATION OF STEAM TO THE CULTIVATION OF THE SOIL.

In this day of Railways, Steam Packets, and all kinds of possible and impossible projects that take their place in that huge van whose destination may be made known in one word, to wit—civilization, we must not lose sight of the fact that a country is not truly great and advanced in proportion to her independence apart from other nations, or in other words as to her self sustaining powers.
