

press horses are being stationed along this gap; the first through express telegrams may arrive now at any hour.

We hear that a wide awake speculator is about to start a gorgeous affair, like the Catalanes, at Flores. It is to be quite an "upper crust" business, for the sexes, with prices in proportion.

British merchants, have lent their names to a scheme which, ignoring the hard bought experience of ages of discretion and practice, admits of a repetition in this country of the mischievous vagaries played in the infantile days of banking in what are now more experienced commercial communities.

Government land, of the rents of the province of 1 of the profits of the bank. The loan will be represented by 7 per cent provincial bonds issued at 80, with coupons and 2 per cent. amortization.

for them." I observe that the February wool sale quite confirmed this assertion. Mr. Hayley's pool topped the market. 157,000 ponces per pound is a great average.
