AUCTION. PEDRO EBBEKE & CO. Auctioneers.

Have been instructed to sell, by Public Auction, On SUNDAY, 22d, At TWO PM.

It stands 17 1/2 by 18 1/2 yards, is four stories high, and has thirty-two rooms, besides two large Saloons on the ground floor.

Also two kitchens, algebe, gas and water-pipes, force pumps, which supply the happy denizens of these exalted regions.

The ceilings are of the best stucco work; doors and windows of cedar wood. There are 12 Marble Chimney pieces.

Locks, bolts, and bars of the newest patents, brought especially from Europe. All the rooms are large, square, and well-built, and, on the whole, would be admirably suited for a HOTEL.

Being exactly at the head of the Passenger Mole, by which every man, woman, and child coming into the country has to pass. It has also a lovely and commanding view of the shipping.

The purchaser would have the right to build an Arcade on the street, thereby gaining five yards for the upper rooms. The materials are of the very best kind, and no expense has been spared in the finish.

SAVINGS BANK BANK MAU & CO. 101-Calle Cangallo-103 BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current is now generally felt and appreciated in the great emporium of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount. These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of artists, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a regular fund in case of need.

The Bank of Mau & Co. are also provided with a noble example of their firm in Montevideo, will offer the same facilities in this city, and has CONDICIONS. First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.
