There will be no engineering obstacles of any note between Tandil and Bahia Blanca, the country being rather undulating than hilly, and no rivers of any note to be crossed except the Naposta. The total length, 60 leagues, in a W. S. W. course, may be divided into 3 sections, viz-

1st Section .- Tandil to the Frontier. The line will start from Tandil, running WSW., leaving the Sierras of Tundil on the left, cross the Chapaleofű stream, pass midway between Buteler and Vela estancias on the left and Cerro San Severo in Gervacio Lopez's estancia on the right, traverse tranza and Calle Lira. the Cinco Lomas of Anchorena, leaving John Cornell's land left, and Fort News for produce in Europe conti-Otamendo 5 leagues to the right. Then cross the Chaves estancia near Lake San Bartolo, and having travers ed the Hornos and Areco possessions and left those of Aldao, Valdez and Roll to the left, reach the frontier some leagues NW. of Tres Arroyos. Length 64 miles.

> 2nd Section .- Indian country to Pillahuinco.

Bare pampas now intervene for a stretch of 56 miles, without signs of habitation or of pastoral industry, till we reach 3 lagoons which may be considered the head-waters of Pillahuinco miles from the lagoons above stated. Length 76 miles.

3rd Section,-Pillahuinco to Bahia Blanca.

Skirting the base of the Sierra Pillahuinco, the line will leave the Vela: estancias to the left and cross the Sauce Grande with the famous range of Sierra Ventana on the right. This point is ten leagues higher up the valley of Sauce Grande than Mr. Newton's estancia, Casa de Fierro, and will probably be fixed on as a station for the English colony of El Sauce. The following characteristic story of Her Majesty the Queen will interest our countrymen in the Plate-"The Queen's Guard of the 93rd Highland ers at Edinburgh have been teaching her Majesty how to boil potatoes During her stay at Holyrood, the Sovereign went on foot to the quarters of the troops, who are posted near the Palace. When she entered the guardroom, most of the men were absent and going through drill; but a few were engaged, with their coats off and their shirt sleeves tucked up, in the highly useful occupation of boiling potatoes. One, indeed, was practically trying whether they were sufficiently boiled; and, in answer to a queenly question, the embarrassed cook could with difficulty articulate the words, "Potatoe: your Majesty. The soldier may congratulate himself on the fact that he was found so well employed, and. certainly, his reply displayed a brevity and point which might serve as models for the addresses that Town Councils present the Royal House. Gt. B. Ayres and Rosario Railway. [With Branches all over the North.]

To the Merchants and Capitalists of Buenos Ayres. I beg to invite the Merchants and wealthy men of my country to take shares in this great net of ity country to enterprise.

If we can carry it out with local capital it will be a triumph for the name of Buenos Ayres. I hope to do so, and feel confident the country can produce 1,000 persons able and willing to subscribe 10,000$ fts., each payable over a term of two years.

The onterprise will be no less beneficial to the country than lucrative to the Shareholders.

Hoping that you will soon crown my efforts,

I remain,

Your humble Servant,

RILLINGHURST.
