

...wion, Gatcho revolution, low prices of wool, and secas.

Mr. Wileken has the leisure to run up and pay us a visit...

Of the safety of life here compared with so many places below it is unnecessary to speak...

I may remark that it was a curious coincidence that the same mail that brought up your impression of the 15th also brought up to me the news...

I believe this country to be most healthy. I know that the only sufferings in health that the immigrants have had have been owing to too much fruit and mosquito-bites...

I can say finally that, with all the trouble any Government might take, they would never induce to leave this country the 639 immigrants...

I trust, sirs, to your justice to insert this letter. Some of the language in it may be strong, but it is feeble when compared with the insulting and discreditable language...

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The thunder and rain storm which burst over the city on Thursday evening was of a terrific description.

We publish in another column a letter from Mr. Seymour, manager of the "Lincolnshire Farmer" colony in Paraguay...

The sufferers by the interview between two trains on the Boca Union on New Year's Day, are the honor, smothering fatality, with the exception of Mr. H. A. Green...

Several Lunas friends, philosophers and subscribers, amongst the second some young maids and youngish widows, request us to ask a favour on their part...

Robinson Crusoe has been outdone by a French sailor who has just returned in Paris, which city he left as one of an exploring expedition to the North Pole...

"Our Own" in London writes to us as follows about quarantine here:—"From gentlemen who have recently returned from the late, I hear that quarantine in Buenos Ayres is likely to be a permanent institution...

The murdered Governor of San Juan, Don V. Videla, was interred with great pomp. The corpse was placed in the family vault in the cemetery...

The Rev. Mr. Woods of Rosario gave a handsome New Year's gift to the Biblioteka of that town—thirty two volumes of select and useful works.

Dr. Agrelo, the Criminal Judge who is accused of presenting by a convict evidence in his written to the morning papers denying the whole charge and stating that he can prove this innocence...

ing at the coming festivities. Another meeting of the Committee will be held soon.

Mr. Drossen of the Italian Colony is now in town collecting subscriptions to build a new Protestant church and school-house at the settlement.

The subscriptions at the colony amount to 500 Bolivian dollars, and the central railway has promised the bricks free.

Since the immortal "Don Quijote" was written 1070 editions of it have been published in various languages...

The Vacion proposes that the Dutch system of auctioneering should be introduced here, viz: lads or Lares be put up at an extravagantly high figure...

Mercedes, B.O., is reported in quite a shocking state from whooping cough, scalding, measles, the heat and green fever.

Bullrich had a great print and picture sale yesterday in our first patio. The things generally went at an alarming sacrifice.

A Rosario train car ran down Calle Urquiza to the beach the other day. The horses bolted; the driver and major jumped off; the break broke, and away went the car down the hill at appalling speed...

Four policemen were placed under arrest on Wednesday for celebrating the day "not wisely but too well."

The Wax Works at the Coliseum are not gone yet, though they have been going, going every week these six months.

The robbery at Dr. Rawson's on New Year's Day was a most serious affair. Eleven thousand pats, and $200,000 in cash, besides a lot of Stocks Shares and Certificates...

General Mitre, who is still in quarantine on board the Hipparchus, has paid Captain Miller and his splendid ship the high compliment of remaining on board that vessel till he gets free permits, instead of availing himself of the special steamer which the War Office sent down for his accommodation.

An esteemed Argentine friend who swears (whenever he does swear) by the STANDARD, has asked us to insert the following:—"He was taking a 'paseo' by the Northern" when he saw some religious ceremony going on near the line, the parish priest and curate of Belgrano presiding.

A grand cricket match comes off on Monday next—Twelfth Day—on the Flores ground, between eleven of the Flores and Lunas. Both teams are in severe training and good play may be looked for.

The new Municipality of Rosario was sworn in on New Year's Day. The new mole put up by Mr Castellanos has now become a kind of Kingsdown pier, where fashionable lounge on the arrival of the steamers from the Tigre...

A grand piece of ground on the Flores road between Caladillo and Flores, for 400,000 mps. The valuation of the Ochoa land comes out at the rate of 700,000 mps per acre.

A joint stock bank is to be organized in Montevideo. The capital is to be 2,000,000 mps. The bank is to be named the Banco de Comercio y Fomento.

Mr. F. Yanner was welcomed on "Change" to his return from Paraguay. He reports everything going well up there.

In wool circles today there was a good deal said about the heavy purchases made within the last few days by a French house; full prices paid and much movement in one of the deposits.

There was no "kniving" of "recovering," and "order" was not disturbed. The heat, probably, contributed to a good deal of this unusually odd state of electioneering affairs.

Star steamer Republic, and a number of people go down to Montevideo for the purpose of examining this splendid steamer. The mail closes to-morrow at the Capitania.

There was some enquiry to-day on "Change" for Ensenada Railway shares. We believe there are none in this market, however parties having any for sale can readily sell some by offering them in the ring.

The plans of the new building for the Argentine Bank are now finished. They have been drawn up by an English architect and we suppose the new building will not be begun soon, as the bank holds a 4 years lease of its present premises.

Messa MacLean and Co, the well known Custom House brokers of a Reconquista, have presented themselves to the collector of Customs requesting permission to revise all the Custom House Stores whose goods imported some time back have been deposited.

A movement in Platino-Brazilian telegraph shares was noticed to-day, and the shares are offered for a premium. It seems this concern promises to be a good thing, and one of the largest shareholders in the River Plate Telegraph Company is now one of the heaviest shareholders in the Platino-Brazilian Company.

There was much said on "Change" to-day about the high price of dry cow hides this morning in the Plaza: 200 m/c. a pesado for dry cow hides is a price hitherto unknown in this market, not even in the period of the Crimean war such prices paid.

Strange as it may appear, the Pacification of Buenos Oriental signed in April had no visible effect on the price of wool.

The price-current issued to-day by the Telégraf contains its usual budget of mercantile information, and says—

"The past fortnight has been sterile, the merchants mostly giving their attention to balance-sheets for the year. Imports have been so heavy and continuous that all the warehouses are full, and merchants have had to resort to trade-accounts for a little alleviation.
