

EDITOR'S TABLE.

"Vive La France!" Old Gaul for ever and the sky over it! The La France arrived yesterday evening at the Mount with 1,100 emigrants. The goats run out only 20 days, nothing new or even new.

There was a capital cricket set at Palermo on Monday between the Buenos Ayres and Great Southern Railway Clubs. The play was good considering the shocking weather. Particulars in another column.

There was a little more stir in bonds today than yesterday, and some parties spoke of orders that have come out in the market, but the purchases were hardly of sufficient importance to justify any supposition, and it is more likely that some modest operations in a well known stock in this market had nothing to do with the movement.

There seems nothing more known of the result of yesterday's railway meeting at the Government House. Yesterday the freeman's leg was amputated, and he is in a bad way.

There have been considerable arrivals of sheepskins during the month. Owing to the short interval since our last auctions of this article, the demand by private contract has only been moderate.

THE BOSTON FIRE. Readers, take note that at the fire in Boston not a single case of Dupuy's Brandy was destroyed.

Table with multiple columns containing names, addresses, and other details, likely a directory or list of services.
