seen to stir in the breeze, and the cleavages of the whole cannot be surpassed.

We take the following from a Blue-Book recently published in England. It ought to vividly interest our estancieros and beef preservers, if any of the latter are still in the land of the living.

The returns of the number of live stock in Australia will now command a more special interest in this country with reference to the supply of meat-producing animals in that part of the world.

terms. Such things have happened in the best regulated markets, and then "Adios mi' wool, hides, and everything else. We hope, no matter how bad the next news may be, that no one will be ass enough to throw himself into the plate in case he gets peeled.

Personal.—A country paper has this delicate personal item.—Those who know nice old Mr. Wilson, of this place, personally, will regret to hear that he was assaulted in a brutal manner last week, but was not killed.

We hear that a convention of milk-milk is to be held next week, at Sweet Auburn, to see if some cheaper substance than chalk cannot be introduced as a milk-colorer.

Poor Belgrano! We feel for this wretched place, but can't cry. The bitterness of death and desolation has fallen over this once popular village.

companies) the cable of the Platino-Brazilian Company into Rio de Janeiro, also expected to leave the Thames from the works of Messrs. Siemens Brothers shortly after the departure of the Maipo.

The test-house at the frontier will be a very substantial erection, after the form of a tower, some twelve feet in diameter and upwards of 18 feet in elevation; indifferently fitted up with two apartments, one for the staff and the other for the test ng apparatus.

The fall in salted hides has been greater than any in the trade anticipated, and fully bears out the very morning judgment of a sojourning merchant in this market a month ago, who emphatically stated that hides had touched their highest, and that even wool was a safer article to deal in.

The river steamers within the last few days have brought down a fair amount of specie—some 70,000 pata.
