buildings going on along Calle Santa Fe are remarkable. That side of town is raising its head rapidly, and the tramway will be the making of it.

A New York paper tells the following funny story about a Darkie wedding in Nashville. The other night, the bride was a servant in the house. She was comely, arrayed, and had several of her friends to witness the ceremony.

The coming week will be a great one for young turtle doves or old house-keepers. On Tuesday, the feast of San Juan, the magnificent household furniture of Mr. Brown (who leaves for the States) will be sold at Temperley.

Another extraordinary maritime accident is reported on the beach. The barque Sabre, left Delaware April 25th and proceeded to sea with the wind W, everything favourable until May 2nd when the wind hauled east.

The following from the Medical Press, is of interest to most preservers and embalmers—birds of a feather.

Five Indian prisoners were lately exchanged with the tribes on the Junco frontier for five Christian captives, and the rescue of others is being negotiated.

What is the difference between a girl and a night-cap? One is born to wear the other is worn to bed. This is the most shocking attempt we have witnessed for some time.

Another competitor in the magazine race. Yesterday Mr. Nolte, the well-known German librarian, called on us to say our Times of 23rd is not the latest paper in town.

was quite a lot who could not even get an idea of it. The appalling Dullness of the morning papers gets worse every day. It is something frightful. The glory of journalism has departed, and editors, sub-editors, correspondents, and the whole tribe seem thoroughly 'pumped out.'

The grand inaugural skating tournament at the Coliseum on Wednesday evening promises to be the most fashionable meet of the season.

There was quite a levee of ship captains at the Court yesterday to converse Mr. Lamaz's statement that his former commander economising his coils, the Soraja would have whistled down from Rio to Montevideo in 24 days.

The latest concession given at the Mount is for working oyster beds at Maldonado, or some place else. It does not matter so long as the bivalves are for lunch.

The news from the theatre of skirmishes yesterday was that of a slight skirmish before Parana and a victory over the rebels by Colonel Campos.

There was a slight reaction in the market today, and both Bonds and Cédulas stiffened. Nevertheless, Cédulas were sold to-day at 79 cents, the lowest price that as yet they have touched.

There were rumours in town yesterday that the Indians look troublesome near Rio Cuarto. Namuncura has succeeded in capturing the King of the Pumpkins. His coronation will take place soon.

Our excellent colleague the Independiente of Cordoba says the theatre there is now like a kitchen, and the ladies get sick from the fumes of tobacco smoke emitted by the 'gentlemen' (I) during the performance. The same paper says: 'By no means to be taken as a compliment. It is a question of course. It is quite true!'

As you have lately found space for one of my periodical letters' on the above grave subject, please hold this also until you have a spare corner.

I received a strict injunction from an exemplary Pastor of one section of our community (he must have 'tended' on the Grampian Hills, he is so rosy of the soil). I will clothe his injunction in my own words.

Now that the custom of buying and selling property at public auction on Sunday seems on the wane, it is a fitting time to leave it off for good and all, never to begin it again, and so raise it if possible this blot on modern society.

In reference to your letter of May 30th (L. B. 152 and 153) I beg to ask you by order of our President to send at once six casks of the yellow grease for the locomotives.

There is a feeling that the level of this stock is the interest in the market. The Bolsa was well attended all day long; people came in that were not in the committee, and up to four o'clock the committee was still in session, and some three or four parties named at the meeting yesterday resigned the post.

There was much said on 'Change about the opposition made in the deputies by Don Mariano Saavedra to the changing of the National Bonds. Dr. Elizalde however spoke so forcibly and so justly as to the necessity of the measure that he carried the house with him, and the bill was sent to committee to make some trifling alterations.

There were rumours in town yesterday that the Indians look troublesome near Rio Cuarto. Namuncura has succeeded in capturing the King of the Pumpkins. His coronation will take place soon.

Europe. This caused a most unfavorable feeling in the market here, and next day, 6th, exchange looked down. That day a meeting of the Cabinet was held with the Emperor at the head, and next day a Treasury notice appeared in the papers stating that Brazilian Government would draw exchange at par. This righted the market.

A large sale of wool from deposit is announced 15,000 ar. at 65, about 40,000 ar. has been sold out of deposit during week; wools for Havre have improved 12 per cent.

On Monday will be discussed the Government project to increase the Bank's emission by two millions. There is a sanguine impression that the bill will become law.

During the present week we have to note the sale in deposit of several lots of wool as the only transactions of importance.

The crisis in the Cuyo Bank is now at its height. Barran and Brist hold the market, being the sole agents of Dupuy's famed Brandy in the Plata. The Bristly lightness is complained of by all the hotel keepers and confectioners in town, and until a few more clerks are put on the Custom-house, a returning case in the Brandy Market cannot be looked for.
