INAUGURATION OF THE CLOTH FACTORY. Sunday was a great day for Buenos Ayres. At 2 p.m. the dream of Mr. Carrulla's life, the six year's labours of Messrs. Terrero, Billinghurst, and Dr. Esteves Segui, were successfully brought to a conclusion by the opening of the first cloth factory in Buenos Ayres.

Government to the contractors of the new railway now in course of construction from Santa Fe to the colonies; with the exception of B. Ayres, this is the Provincial Railway guarantee in this Republic. The public money of Santa Fe could not be better expended, and a province of such rising importance as Santa Fe and with such large trade and commerce and agricultural industry can well afford whatever disbursement the guarantee may entail.

THE STOCK MARKETS reopened this morning with a very quiet appearance, the influence of the holidays being still apparent. Prices generally were dull, sales being encouraged by an increase of demand for money, coupled with the delay of lower prices from the Continent.
