Yarrow? was the cry. We really could not say, and told our visitors that we could not see what the deuce that gentleman had to do with the news not being telegraphed up, or how the news to blame in the slightest.

As usual, every one then wanted to know the meaning of the word Cotopaxi. We told them it meant 'sleep, rest, repose, and the strong melted away as two or three vigilantes stepped in to see what the row was about.

The old story 'before we're out of the wood' is getting rather stale. The Cotopaxi has brought out an extraordinary cargo, nothing less than a supply of iron and handiwork for the prisoners to be caught and confined in the new Prison in about five years hence, when the edifice may be completed.

We beg leave to call attention to the shocking state of the pavement in Calle Trinidad from Calle Gallao to the Onece. We've been near being killed along there a few weeks ago by being shot through the roof of a hackney carriage in a savage jolt over a rut, and every day carriage springs are smashed by the dozen in consequence of the state of the street.

Here is a hint for our colleagues: "An American editor asked his subscribers to pay him, that he may play the same joke upon his creditors."

The following important notice has just been issued by Mr. J. St. John Munro, H.M. Consul at Montevideo: "In consequence of the violation by the late Government of the Republic of the postal contract of 1853..."

There were plenty of rumours but no news from Entre Rios yesterday, at least we heard none. Jordan made a reconnaissance of Concepcion on the 12th, losing one Chasseur, tumbled from his horse, and was killed by a splendid long shot from a Spencer, or Snider.

"A Western musical critic thus speaks of a prima donna:—"She had, and we suppose still retains, a magnificent voice for a fog whistle. Its compass was perfectly surprising. She would shake the chandelier with a wild whoop that made every man instinctively feel for his scalp, and followed it up with a roar that would shame a bassoon."

A lot of iron 'strong rooms' for the new Provincial Bank are now being discharged day by day at that building. They came in use at the Court house. We have in use at the Court house the iron 'strong rooms' of the old strong room of the agent P. B., and a mighty strong door it is; thunder and lightning could not burst it except in this connection we may mention that we have for sale a lot of new improved specie boxes, purchased from our 'ci-devant' financial agent who occupied our present offices. We don't require the boxes till the 68500 ones turn up, which we trust may happen before we are buried.

On Friday the Shah will be received by the Queen in State at Windsor Castle, and in the evening His Majesty will be the guest of the Lord Mayor at a ball to be given at the Guildhall.

On Saturday His Majesty will examine the Arsenal and other objects of interest at Woolwich, and inspect the regiment of Royal Artillery, and in the evening will visit the Royal Italian Opera in State.

On Monday, the 23rd inst. His Majesty will inspect Portsmouth Dockyard and the Channel Fleet. His Majesty will return to town and be present at an evening entertainment at the International Exhibition and Royal Albert Hall.

On Tuesday, the 24th inst., the Shah will be present, with the Queen, at a Review of the Troops in Windsor Great Park, and in the evening will dine with the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

On Wednesday, the 25th inst., His Majesty will pay a visit to the City, and, after inspecting the Bank of England, will embark at the Tower, and passing through the Pool to the West India Docks, His Majesty will afterwards be present at a 'dejeuner' given by the First Lord of the Admiralty at the Royal Naval College, Greenwich.

On the 26th and 27th inst. His Majesty will visit Liverpool, Crewe, and Manchester, and during his visit will be the guest of the Duke of Sutherland at Trentham.

On Saturday, the 28th inst. the Shah will return to Buckingham Palace, and will be present at a 'dejeuner' given by their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales at Chiswick.

On Monday, the 30th inst. the Shah will visit the Crystal Palace, and other arrangements are in contemplation for His Majesty in case time will admit of them.

In the liquidation buyers Bonds 75, and Co. was much said about a paper that has come up from Montevideo purporting to be an account of the court against Camino and Pino, asking for the arrest of the debtors on the ground of fraud; the paper sets forth that the estate will not give 5 per cent. worth of a business? SAVINGS BANK BANK MAU & CO. 101-Calle Cangallo-103 BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accumulated Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the great emporium of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.
