

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS
A DISEASE WITH A HUNDRED SYMPTOMS—Such is dyspepsia. It may be said to simulate almost every other complaint...

TEATRO COLON
GRAN COMPANIA LIBRICA ITALIANA.

La Favorita.
CON BAILE. A las 8. -cj-ag 6

Teatro de la Opera.
COMPANIA LIBRICA ITALIANA DE BAILE.

GRAN BUENICION EXTRAORDINARIA.
A BENEFICIO DE LA PRIMERA DAMA SOPRANO.

S A F F O .
A las 8. -cj-ag 6

MUSEUM.
The best value in Town is the Victoria Theatre.

GERMAN STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY

"KOSMOS,"
The splendid German Steamer "TAKKARAH,"

BRAND AND THE RIVER PLATE.
ASTABE—1850 Tons Reg.—Captain Bear MARINA—1850 " " " "

CLYDE LINE OF STEAMERS.
BRAZIL AND THE RIVER PLATE.

COPIA LINE.
COPIA LINE.

COPIA LINE.
COPIA LINE.

COPIA LINE.
COPIA LINE.

COPIA LINE.
COPIA LINE.

COPIA LINE.
COPIA LINE.

COPIA LINE.
COPIA LINE.

COPIA LINE.
COPIA LINE.

COPIA LINE.
COPIA LINE.

COPIA LINE.
COPIA LINE.

COPIA LINE.
COPIA LINE.

COPIA LINE.
COPIA LINE.

COPIA LINE.
COPIA LINE.

COPIA LINE.
COPIA LINE.

COPIA LINE.
COPIA LINE.

REMATE.
Bullrich y Ca.
Muebles Nuevos.

EL REMATE EN LA ENSENADA

SUSPENDIO

EL DOMINGO 3 DE AGOSTO

Domingo 10 del Corriente

SALIDA DE VAPORES.

Edicto.

HOUSE COALS AND SMITH COALS.

PORTLAND, OREGON.

TUESDAY

LETTERS.

Standard in Montevideo.

The Standard.

Special Telegrams to the "STANDARD."

Another Transandinian Railway.

The Corcovado's Mails.

the Danube. The medical officers in London have already issued their customary notices of precaution.

The merchants and brokers of Liverpool, at a meeting held yesterday, unanimously resolved to take immediate steps for the introduction of the system of payment by cheques, and the establishment of a bankers' clearing house similar to those existing in London, Manchester, and other towns.

The shooting for the Queen's Prize at Wimbledon, continued yesterday, and the sun being concealed by clouds, but the light otherwise good, with but a light wind blowing, several high scores were obtained.

Letters from Roger Charles Tichborne to Mr. Hopkins, and letters from Mr. Slaughter to Mr. Hopkins, copy of the will of Roger Charles Tichborne, and copies of deeds dated 9th and 10th of May, 1850, and other documents used in the case were put in, amongst them Roger's pocket-book that was produced by the defendant on the former trial; also Roger's library.

This closed the case for the prosecution, and at twenty minutes past one o'clock the Court was adjourned until Monday, the 21st, at eleven o'clock.

This London season of 1873 is passing away nobody knows how. Every one seems suddenly amazed to find the opera season nearly over and parliament talking of prorogation.

The infant idea of a South American Club is increasing in stature. Bye and bye it will increase in wisdom.

In the Court of Probate, yesterday, the hearing of the case 'Farrel v. Gordon' was resumed, and the proceedings were fully reported in the late editions last evening.

The defendant's counsel asked for costs, but Sir James Hannen would not hear of it. Dr. Deane however on the part of the plaintiffs, said that the costs would be paid voluntarily.

Intelligence received here from Malaga announces the assassination of the deputy mayor and a municipal councillor, both of whom were prominent political adversaries of Sr. Carbal, the Ultrá Democratic leader in that town.

With the exception of Sr. Pi-y-Margall, President of the Council and Minister of the Interior, the members of the new Spanish Cabinet are chiefly men whose antecedents are but little known.

Another Transandinian Railway.

The Corcovado's Mails.

The merchants and brokers of Liverpool, at a meeting held yesterday, unanimously resolved to take immediate steps for the introduction of the system of payment by cheques, and the establishment of a bankers' clearing house similar to those existing in London, Manchester, and other towns.

The shooting for the Queen's Prize at Wimbledon, continued yesterday, and the sun being concealed by clouds, but the light otherwise good, with but a light wind blowing, several high scores were obtained.

Letters from Roger Charles Tichborne to Mr. Hopkins, and letters from Mr. Slaughter to Mr. Hopkins, copy of the will of Roger Charles Tichborne, and copies of deeds dated 9th and 10th of May, 1850, and other documents used in the case were put in, amongst them Roger's pocket-book that was produced by the defendant on the former trial; also Roger's library.

This closed the case for the prosecution, and at twenty minutes past one o'clock the Court was adjourned until Monday, the 21st, at eleven o'clock.

This London season of 1873 is passing away nobody knows how. Every one seems suddenly amazed to find the opera season nearly over and parliament talking of prorogation.

The infant idea of a South American Club is increasing in stature. Bye and bye it will increase in wisdom.

In the Court of Probate, yesterday, the hearing of the case 'Farrel v. Gordon' was resumed, and the proceedings were fully reported in the late editions last evening.

The defendant's counsel asked for costs, but Sir James Hannen would not hear of it. Dr. Deane however on the part of the plaintiffs, said that the costs would be paid voluntarily.

Intelligence received here from Malaga announces the assassination of the deputy mayor and a municipal councillor, both of whom were prominent political adversaries of Sr. Carbal, the Ultrá Democratic leader in that town.

With the exception of Sr. Pi-y-Margall, President of the Council and Minister of the Interior, the members of the new Spanish Cabinet are chiefly men whose antecedents are but little known.

Another Transandinian Railway.

The Corcovado's Mails.

The merchants and brokers of Liverpool, at a meeting held yesterday, unanimously resolved to take immediate steps for the introduction of the system of payment by cheques, and the establishment of a bankers' clearing house similar to those existing in London, Manchester, and other towns.

The shooting for the Queen's Prize at Wimbledon, continued yesterday, and the sun being concealed by clouds, but the light otherwise good, with but a light wind blowing, several high scores were obtained.

Letters from Roger Charles Tichborne to Mr. Hopkins, and letters from Mr. Slaughter to Mr. Hopkins, copy of the will of Roger Charles Tichborne, and copies of deeds dated 9th and 10th of May, 1850, and other documents used in the case were put in, amongst them Roger's pocket-book that was produced by the defendant on the former trial; also Roger's library.

This closed the case for the prosecution, and at twenty minutes past one o'clock the Court was adjourned until Monday, the 21st, at eleven o'clock.

This London season of 1873 is passing away nobody knows how. Every one seems suddenly amazed to find the opera season nearly over and parliament talking of prorogation.

The infant idea of a South American Club is increasing in stature. Bye and bye it will increase in wisdom.

In the Court of Probate, yesterday, the hearing of the case 'Farrel v. Gordon' was resumed, and the proceedings were fully reported in the late editions last evening.

The defendant's counsel asked for costs, but Sir James Hannen would not hear of it. Dr. Deane however on the part of the plaintiffs, said that the costs would be paid voluntarily.

Intelligence received here from Malaga announces the assassination of the deputy mayor and a municipal councillor, both of whom were prominent political adversaries of Sr. Carbal, the Ultrá Democratic leader in that town.

With the exception of Sr. Pi-y-Margall, President of the Council and Minister of the Interior, the members of the new Spanish Cabinet are chiefly men whose antecedents are but little known.

Another Transandinian Railway.

The Corcovado's Mails.

The merchants and brokers of Liverpool, at a meeting held yesterday, unanimously resolved to take immediate steps for the introduction of the system of payment by cheques, and the establishment of a bankers' clearing house similar to those existing in London, Manchester, and other towns.

The shooting for the Queen's Prize at Wimbledon, continued yesterday, and the sun being concealed by clouds, but the light otherwise good, with but a light wind blowing, several high scores were obtained.

Letters from Roger Charles Tichborne to Mr. Hopkins, and letters from Mr. Slaughter to Mr. Hopkins, copy of the will of Roger Charles Tichborne, and copies of deeds dated 9th and 10th of May, 1850, and other documents used in the case were put in, amongst them Roger's pocket-book that was produced by the defendant on the former trial; also Roger's library.

This closed the case for the prosecution, and at twenty minutes past one o'clock the Court was adjourned until Monday, the 21st, at eleven o'clock.

This London season of 1873 is passing away nobody knows how. Every one seems suddenly amazed to find the opera season nearly over and parliament talking of prorogation.

The infant idea of a South American Club is increasing in stature. Bye and bye it will increase in wisdom.

In the Court of Probate, yesterday, the hearing of the case 'Farrel v. Gordon' was resumed, and the proceedings were fully reported in the late editions last evening.

The defendant's counsel asked for costs, but Sir James Hannen would not hear of it. Dr. Deane however on the part of the plaintiffs, said that the costs would be paid voluntarily.

Intelligence received here from Malaga announces the assassination of the deputy mayor and a municipal councillor, both of whom were prominent political adversaries of Sr. Carbal, the Ultrá Democratic leader in that town.

With the exception of Sr. Pi-y-Margall, President of the Council and Minister of the Interior, the members of the new Spanish Cabinet are chiefly men whose antecedents are but little known.

Another Transandinian Railway.

The Corcovado's Mails.

The merchants and brokers of Liverpool, at a meeting held yesterday, unanimously resolved to take immediate steps for the introduction of the system of payment by cheques, and the establishment of a bankers' clearing house similar to those existing in London, Manchester, and other towns.

The shooting for the Queen's Prize at Wimbledon, continued yesterday, and the sun being concealed by clouds, but the light otherwise good, with but a light wind blowing, several high scores were obtained.

Letters from Roger Charles Tichborne to Mr. Hopkins, and letters from Mr. Slaughter to Mr. Hopkins, copy of the will of Roger Charles Tichborne, and copies of deeds dated 9th and 10th of May, 1850, and other documents used in the case were put in, amongst them Roger's pocket-book that was produced by the defendant on the former trial; also Roger's library.

This closed the case for the prosecution, and at twenty minutes past one o'clock the Court was adjourned until Monday, the 21st, at eleven o'clock.

This London season of 1873 is passing away nobody knows how. Every one seems suddenly amazed to find the opera season nearly over and parliament talking of prorogation.

The infant idea of a South American Club is increasing in stature. Bye and bye it will increase in wisdom.

In the Court of Probate, yesterday, the hearing of the case 'Farrel v. Gordon' was resumed, and the proceedings were fully reported in the late editions last evening.

The defendant's counsel asked for costs, but Sir James Hannen would not hear of it. Dr. Deane however on the part of the plaintiffs, said that the costs would be paid voluntarily.

Intelligence received here from Malaga announces the assassination of the deputy mayor and a municipal councillor, both of whom were prominent political adversaries of Sr. Carbal, the Ultrá Democratic leader in that town.

With the exception of Sr. Pi-y-Margall, President of the Council and Minister of the Interior, the members of the new Spanish Cabinet are chiefly men whose antecedents are but little known.

Another Transandinian Railway.

The Corcovado's Mails.

