

A gymnast is announced, who will sing a comic song, and recite a page from some tragedy, while swinging to and fro, head downwards; to be as much as possible on a level with the audience.

The sun has had the impudence to contribute 79 degrees in the shade; no one grumbles, but perspires; it is a meeting that makes amends for all the long months he has been wandering away.

The exhibition of Vienna has enriched household receipts; to cure children of the whooping cough, a French correspondent states, it is only necessary to whip them out of the paroxysm.

EDITORS TABLE.

The Royal Mail steamer Douro sailed for Southampton yesterday afternoon. She took a considerable number of passengers, a heavy mail and a large amount in specie.

Memorial windows being just now, we believe, a subject of interest to our Scotch subscribers, the following extract from a recent English exchange may be apropos—

"A handsome memorial window was put into the parish church of Crathie last week, by direction of her Majesty the Queen, in honor of the late Dr. Norman Macleod. The window is opposite the royal pew.

The horrid murder of Mr. and Miss Southam has caused a most sorrowful sensation in town. It seems quite hopeless to expect frontier protection. Some friends from the scene of the outrage called on us yesterday, and the mystery still surrounding the crime induces us to refrain from publishing any of the rumours about till we obtain reliable data.

The latest news from the seat of war at Chiviloy is that the Juez there has resigned. Dr. Fernandez, the Fiscal, is now in that lively camp town, making official inquiries into the recent scrimmage, so we may expect to hear the real state of affairs in a day or two.

Norma at the Opera House to-night. Wives and Weather permitting there ought to be a good audience. Future generations, whose great grand-mothers are yet unborn, will most certainly look back on the Nineteenth Century as the Cable Age.

word printed will be worth its weight in paper dollars, which must be paid. Cables will either be the death or the making of the River Plate. People in a small way of trade or speculation may pack their portfolios, for Electricity is about to place us all under the rule of CAPITAL whose throne is in London, and which all the nations of the Earth are hastening to worship.

Our Bolsa and Wool markets will be galvanized into a new life when European speculators get them within reach as fresh pawns in the great game of Speculation. The day is coming, when here as elsewhere LAND will be the only commodity that that commercial battledore, the Cable, cannot make a shuttlecock of, and its possessors will be the true aristocracy of the country.

The City of Buenos Ayres Tramway Company have begun preparations for paving Calle San Martin, as far as their lines run along it. This is stunning good news. There will henceforth be no danger of brokers, bankers and barruqueros being suddenly deprived of the vital principle by breaking their necks over "petrified kidney" pavement when rushing about, trying to earn their daily crust and cold mutton.

Let no man with an eye to a competitor, his old age forget the land auction at Ensenada to-day by Mr. Adolphus Bullrich. A talent buried in that rising locality to-day will return a million fold. From a trifling deposit of this kind years and years ago our 70,000 ounces green, and land at Ensenada is far more fertile than in Calle San Martin.

Spring is at our gates. In the suburban quantities of trees are already in blossom, and another month will irretrievably break old Winter's back. There is an immense quantity of all kinds of native and foreign flowers sown in the quintas this year, and the seed men are quite cleaned out. Buenos Ayres will be surrounded by a veritable Garden of Eden this year.

The Hegira from town to Flores still continues, and other less attractive suburbs are also preparing for their summer visitors. What all this hurrying to get out of town is all about is hard to say. Santa Rosa is pretty likely to send us some stiff weather, and town is generally the most comfortable place till her Saintship's annual visit paid.

The gas men hold the town. Mr. Smith, called by every man in town "our Mutual friend," is cock of the walk at present, and he is less attractive than his opponents are snoring. Smith's forces now number 800 of the bravest individuals that ever chewed tobacco, and they are laying pipes in every street in town with vertiginous rapidity. Cheaper light, no charge for metres, no old fogeyism, and "sharp" for a motto will carry the Mutual Company through triumphantly.

The shareholders of the old company are shivering in their slippers, and will soon require hot water to the soles of their feet, if what the Mutual has in the kettle for them prove insufficient. Mr. Smith we salute you.

We hear of the premature death of a newspaper on the Brazilian frontier of B.O. We'll don't enrage on the "caution," mourning studs and black kids to-morrow morning. Mr. Ebbecke's auction of land on the Flores Road, near the Wanklyn quinta, comes off to-day, and is a splendid opportunity for those looking out for a good site for a country house.

the old country. It is a singular fact that all nations, with the exception of the French, prefer despatching their monthly correspondence by the Royal Mail. But, alas! stamps gave out early; Hibbert, heretofore inviolable on the stamp question, succumbed, and retired to books and stationery. Notwithstanding all this, the British Consul has some 4300 of English stamps looked up in his room, and while every one who wishes to send a prepaid letter is prevented from doing so, simply because something or other prevents their being sold.

ON CHANGE.

Table with columns for various locations (Onca, Suva, Pata, National Bonds, Colaba) and their corresponding values. Includes a section for 'For end of month' and 'September 30th'.

Nothing done in National Bonds. Gas Shares offered, but nothing done. Exchange closed a shade stiffer for the packet, and some bills were passed at 1 and 1/2.

The grand news of the day was from the Government House. It was announced on official authority that on the 1st September the new law for changing the National Bonds will be carried into effect. All the old bonds of 17 to the ounce will be changed into new bonds of 16 to the ounce, the same as the present Hard Dollar Bonds on the London market.

Money begins gradually to become easier, and first class paper was done to-day at 12 per cent per annum. Two of the private banks are discounting: all are renewing.

The Times of the 15th, the latest in the Plate, brings tremendous news. Paraguanys from London to 31 for the 2nd lot, and 35 for the first lot. This is a fall of over 30 per cent, and the feeling in the London market seems to be "stand down, under!"

The sale of a beautiful piece of ground facing Mr. Wanklyn's gateway on the Flores Road is announced for to-morrow (Friday) 2 o'clock; the site is the sweetest and best in the suburbs for a country residence, and will be sold by Mr. Ebbecke at 2 o'clock sharp without the least reserve.

The market continues very active and firm, prices showing on May sales a recovery of 15, occasionally 20, for Buenos Ayres wools, and 20 to 25 c. for Montevideo. A large lot of Guayaquil wool, say 782 bales, averaging a 2nd, sold to-day at 19 1/2 all round.

At the station no arrivals. Some 20 carts entered at the plaza. The sales were as follows:— 2 carts fine wool at 75 4 do inferior, 68-72. 5 do inferior, 68-72.

Large arrivals. Sheepskins. Sold: 1,000 doz good material, 26 to 27 rls. 200 do camp, 22 to 24. 2 do inferior, 14 to 16 p. doz. 26 do desechos, 6 to 10.
