FRIDAY, AUGUST 29, 1873. REVIEW FOR EUROPE.

An attempt to assassinate President Sarmiento, on Saturday night last, is the most striking news we have to report this week.

ATTEMPT TO SHOOT THE PRESIDENT. ARREST OF THE ASSASSINS. About 9 o'clock on Saturday evening, as President Sarmiento was proceeding in his carriage to the house of Dr. Velez Sarsheld

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

Aug. 20, 1873.

Cedulas continue rising, and perhaps the rise in this stock may to a certain extent be taken as an index of the money market. Cedulas were a bid today at 90 on time. The general impression is that in October and November money will become very tight, and that for those months the stock will rise high. The monthly in the stock market is in bonds, the King entering as a seller; he sold heavily for the end of the month at 80, but everything offered was taken up by one bidder who bought for that date.

The Mazonia leaves to-day for Maldonado at 10. Home debt, 66. Exchange, 61. On Paris, 64. There was nothing done in gas shares to-day, but it seems that as soon as the Municipality raises its loan the account due to the gas will be paid, and that the dividend which the company will pay to the shareholders will be from 30 to 40 per cent.

of by the bears, but most people know all about it. It is a very simple matter. The Argentine Minister concluded a treaty with Paraguay, making the Pilcomayo the Chaco boundary. The Argentine territory is much more extensive than those who knew nothing of the matter expected. The Argentine Government refused to ratify the treaty claiming the whole of the Pilcomayo territory, and the Paraguayan Government broke off. Both Argentine and Brazilian ministers have been expelled from each other's country.

of the wool. Some few lots sold at full quotations, and some sales of sheep for grain as high as 84. Mr. F.
