We had almost forgotten to salute the Libertad on the recent anniversary of its birthday.

The Progress Club will give its July ball on the 7th inst., Tuesday next.

Of course, all our subscribers are aware that the glorious Ninth will be a strict holiday, with fireworks, flags and fuegos, balloons, 'bombas' and all the accessories of a great national flare up.

Nothing new from Cordoba except that the Jordan dramatic company is going on fairly, and that Mr. Telfener has given 100 hard pats on a pat on the back to the fund for repairing the hospitals.

All our native metropolitan colleagues are in exstasies at their new little ironclad the Uruguay, now anchored in the roads.

To-morrow will be the glorious Fourth of July, a day sacred in the annals of Liberty, Equality and Fraternity all the world over.

There was a free fight at Flores on Monday between six 'sujetos' and as many policemen. The 'blues' were beaten into a cocked hat, everyone of them being wounded.

A tramway 'mayoral' has bolted with 2,000 mpc. Wretched boy, why did not he take something worth while turning rogue for?

ON 'CHANGE.

The Cedula market ruled a shade firmer today, which every one attributed to the new rule of the Mortgage Bank.

Table showing the sales of stock to-day, listing various stocks and their respective prices.

In the liquidation nothing done. Exchange rules dull. Bills on England done freely at 48 1/2, and on France 5.14 takers.

It appears that other business telegrams besides Sivers & Meyer's have come over the cable, but the message we noted this morning gave 500 pats. clear profit.

Mr. John Clarke, Transandino Railway Concessionaire, is expected here next week from Chile, en route for London.

A meeting has been held in Cordoba to solicit Congress for permit to establish a mint there. The idea is a capital one—anything that will increase coin in the country is good.

Our last Report was dated 22nd April. Since then the arrivals from the River Plate have been: April 27, L Myers, with 433 b wool.

The following table shows the issue for the last six months, and the exact amount of Series A in circulation on the last day of each month.

Table showing the amount of Series A in circulation on the last day of each month from 1873 to 1874.

This gives an average annual increase for the year of say $2,325,000, which certainly cannot be regarded as heavy.

Thus we find the following working of the bank for the month of June to stand on— Emission in month 269,000.

which shows that the issue for the month stands at only 105,700 Cédulas, and nevertheless Cédulas have fallen heavily during the month.

The directors, with an increase of business, also report a decrease in the rate of expenses.

The actuary of the company has completed his third quinquennial investigation, and it shows a cash profit of $30,419 for the five years ending on the 31st December—three-fourths of this amount belong to the participating policyholders.

A very able article in the Libertad of this morning on the progress of the market attracted much notice, and the figures given to show the great falling off in Argentine trade.

The Trinity of Maritime to-day says that the French packet Mendoza took a large amount of gold from Buenos Ayres.

It is rumored that the Government of Mendoza is in the market for a small loan of two hundred thousand pats. in National Bonds.

Mr. Casado, manager of the Provincia. Cia. de Santa Fe, having resigned, a fresh election has been held: 20 votes for Casado, 2 for Guaura, and 11 for Moreno.
