The Lacrosse Camp Tramway project, of which we give full particulars in our leading columns, is the great topic of the day.

When Lord Palmerston was asked to support the bill for localising marriage with a deceased wife's sister, he said that the only advantage of the change of law would be that a man who married twice under such circumstances would not have two mothers-in-law.

ON CHANGE.

Sept. 2, 1874. Oncoes, 400. Boves, 1221. Pato, 25. Nal. Buenos, 77. Cedral, 83.

The stock market ruled very quiet today, and the sales were trifling. The bears are still equipped with the proposed measure before the Chambers, which nobody believes in.

The Chacarita Cemetery question will soon be one of the most serious of the day. The Lord Mayor has finally informed the Provincial Government that very few more days will exhaust the capacity of the Cemetery, as every available inch of space for graves is almost filled up.

The amount of money offering in the last few days on Cédulas and Bónos p-er cent has attracted notice. We attend this plethora of capital to large amounts of exchange drawn at the present low rates in anticipation of the wool season. The business is a capital one for the export merchant who passes his exchange at fully two per cent on the wool season rates.

The Nova may be expected now in a few days and all doubts respecting the Rosario Railway removed. Mr. Billingshurst is on board, and we hear brings a respectable sum in specie. Respecting the Rosario Railway, it was said on 'Change that the business has been concluded with Messrs. Waring & Bros. ad referendum, that is to say they will undertake the trunk road with branches that enjoy the Government guarantee, eliminating from the competition all the other branches spoken of.

Our advice respecting the (Inerg) loan are somewhat hazy; we believe the matter has to stand over until October, when the money season in England begins. Offers of a favorable nature have been already made to Mr. Huber, but we suppose he prefers to wait for the season.

We note that such is the multitude of Mr. Buller's announcements that this popular auctioneer-in-chief is obliged to make a summary of his advertisements. Thus to relieve the public eye from the difficulty of sifting the long columns of the papers to discover what they have on sale; the more is a good one, although it is a sign of very uncertain prosperity the enormous business of one city and another. Not even the Provincial Bank itself could afford to buy up all the property that in a single week we see advertised by the auctioneers, and could we but get at the figures there can be little doubt there is more property sold at one of our auctions in this city than in Liverpool, Dublin, London, or New York. Buenos Ayres seems to take precedence of Europe and the States in the line of real estate and auctions. We wish we could add to our wheat and maize.

The following is the balance-sheet of the City Savings Bank for August 31, 1874.

Table with columns: Series, Haber, and Deber. Lists various financial entries and their amounts.

Mr. Curvaño, manager of the American Telegraph Agency, publishes his programme today. It will be seen that merchants can have all the market news daily from London for the low charge of 400 m per month.

Don Norberto Martinez, a gentleman well known in commercial circles, expired yesterday at the age of 75. His funeral to-day was very large and attended.

It seems probable that the Argentine Republic will not have any representation at the National Exhibition of the United States, England and Chile, inasmuch as the Senate has reduced the amount awarded to 10,000 pesos, which is altogether insufficient for the purpose.

The works of the city improvements are now going on apparently much faster; at all the streets in the different streets we see hands busily employed. The state of Calle Cango is something truly awful, and the Lacrosse Tramway is hardly able to get through.

The most striking market is each day getting better, and by the end of the month we may expect to see our most valuable commodity, the River Plate price. The growing population of Buenos Ayres, however, calls for a very plentiful supply, and it is extraordinary that so few parties devote themselves to the fattening of cattle, which would be one of the best paying occupations if properly managed.

With pleasure we note the growth of a branch of our bank to which few of the city merchants attend to refer to the country's traffic. Yesterday some forty or fifty tons with every variety of produce arrived down from the rivers. This immense trade list is going on as for the most part in the hands of people little seen on the Bolsa, but it is a branch of trade of the most vital importance to the country, and is every day on the increase.

Another Loan Song. (Dedicated to the new President of Paraguay.) By a Paraguayan Bondholder. Why, this is the more exquisite song than the other. Mr. Gill, will you wake from your slumbers. Our loans are unpaid, and our pockets are empty. Can you look on the coupons, and think of the numbers? People you've sold and bamboozled out-right.

RACES AT LANUS. THE FINE Santa Teresa Course. Will be the scene of a busy jovial Meeting on September 8th.

Programme to-morrow. Messrs. Sempe and Co. of the Palais, have charge of the Restaurant. B. Ayres Cricket Club.

debits of foreign countries to the Stock Exchange here in this or some other way may not easily be avoided, and as regards a country like France, there are many reasons for the expediency of the admission; but in the case of minor foreign countries, some of the consequences may not be so satisfactory.

The great danger to these countries is the facility of borrowing for their public works, which are not always immediately remunerated, but a useful check is put to this borrowing power each now issue has to be distinctly brought out in a foreign market. The foreign creditor can then learn to avoid a country which comes too often, while he is also protected so far against the risk of taxation of the debt and other evils by the interest being payable abroad, and being specially exempted from such taxation.
