PARIS GOSSIP. (Our Own Correspondent.)

Very intense interest is displayed in the forthcoming election for a deputy in the Department of Calvados, in Normandy. It will be the occasion for each candidate counting his people.

but no one alleged grave-diggers were on duty in the cemetery. Besides, of the 2,000 medical students, none ever fell victims to the emanations of the dissecting room.

But the "Bazaine descent," is the newest slide down a knotted rope taught in the Paris gymnastics.

It is a remarkable fact, that the Orleanists are the Septennists, and are hugging the Septennists as a nest for their d'Autante, to be guarded in the natural course of things for his nephew the Comte de Paris, dare not bring forward one of their party to the ballot.

Clearly the 'cries' about Mexico, Sedan, Alsace, invasion, Coup d'Etat &c are losing their force.

As free as a prisoner, has now become a household word in France. The want of organized, of constituted Government, has so relaxed duty, obedience and discipline, that the authorities cannot even rely on the fidelity of a gaoler.
