There is not a word in this famous decree about muzzling or chaining the four footed dogs, who come off scot free, all such little preventives being applied to their masters. On calm reflection perhaps, the parties who drew up this wonderful decree will not be thought as great fools as they seem. They want to get rid of the dogs, and it they but carry out their ukase 'au pied de la lettre,' there wont be even a new born puppy left in Victorid five minu tes after the first dog owner is duly chained, muzzled and mulcted. for 6.000 m/c. There was a report on 'Change this afternoon' that some pine 18 market to the Cape of Good Hope.

Perhaps the most grateful new? in the market o-day was the reopening of the Argentine Bank the doors of the bank were opened to-day at the Palermo on Wednesday last, and re- usual hour, and the bank offices were their customary appearance. The bank now issues boletos' to all its creditors, each 'boleto' will be for 10 per cent. of the amount of the obligation payable every 3 months until the whole sum is liquidated. This arrangement secures the creditors against all loss, a little delay being the only inconvenience to depositors, and which delay is recompensed for in the shape of 10 per cent. interest which the bank pays on the debt, a more equitable settlement could hardly be arrived at and we have no doubt this new scrip will be held up by depositors as a good and safe investment for their money. The position of the Arg. Bank now is stronger than ever, since these 'boletos' represent a cipital of over 71 millions pats, and to this we must add 40 per cent yet to be called up on 18 the shares. We hope therefore to see this Bank re-ume its former splendid business, for we can neasure the business of the institution by its deposits which a month before it stopped reached 9 for this market; all through it difficulties the Argentine Bank notes passed current at par in Cordova and Rosario, and this speaks for the great credit of this Bank.

This shows that the market here suffers more from the want of confidence than anything else; there is money enough in the Plate for all legitimate trade transactions. The article in the STANDARD this morning on our trade returns as taken from the Minister's stutistics attracted great notice; the fluctuations in some articles of trade are wondrous; take for instance butter, we imported only 8 tons last year against 250 tons the previous year.

By the mails from Montevideo received this morning we learn that exchange down there is

Mr. John Oldham, manager of the Montevidean Telegraph Co., has brought up the materia's for lifting and splicing the cable, also the necessary tackle, grapuels, &c. so we hope in a few days to have our communication with Montevideo estored.

We note in the Montevidean rapers that the vell-known firm of Jorge West & Co., machinists, is dissolved and gone into liquidation, also the firm of Coronado & Arbelaiz is dissolved, businesto be henceforward carried on by Diego Coronado, and the new import and export firm of P Sallerin & Co. established. The very absorbing topic of the moment is the National Bank, what with the extraordinary articles in the Union Argentina against the bank and the varied versions of meeting of Directors, public attention has been much attracted to the question. The article in the Union Argentina of Tuesday evening appears most indiscreet; whether there is any foundation for the grave charges National Bank shares offering freely, no buyers | therein contained we of course cannot say, but The R. Max Havelaar

BY MULTATULI.

It is difficult to say whether Max Havelaar i more interesting as a novel or powerful as a po-litical pamphlet. From either point of view it is of rare and first rate excellence, In its lifeis of rate and tirst rate excellence, in he inclike actuality it constantly recalls Defoe, while in its tender and original humor it suggests Sterne in his best moods.—" Westminister Review," April, 1868,

• • That is the whole story. A book which comb nes more hun or, knowledge of character. high thought, deep p. thos, and vigorous political intelligence than any we have read for a long time.—" Evening Star," Feb. 14, 1868.

The story is remarkably clever, a rollicking, eccen ric, grotesque and sat rical humor over-flowing on every page. It is unlike any other book that we have read e Some of the episoden, that of Saidjah, for instance, are mani-fest creations of an imaginative genius of an ordinary kind.—" British Quarterly Review," April. 1868.

ordinary kind.—"British Quarterly Review," April, 1868.

It is a novel in form, but in reality a relicion pamphlet. The revelations contained in it starttled the country, and have ever since formed the ground for content on in the 'egislature. Although Max Havehar may beem less attractive to many who read nothing but novels than the morbid and silly stories which are in demand at circulating libraries, yet by other and more judicious readers, it will be heartily welcomed.—'
"Daily News," Feb. 10, 1868.

A more stinging satire of the lower propensities of the Dutch could hardly be conceived than that embodied in the Aristerdam coffee broker, Batavus Drystubble, (who) stands out a one of the most remarkable embodiments of money grubbing Pharise sin which literature has yet produced.

ney grubbing Hauseyet produced, Thackoray himself could not have surpassed this scatthing page ("God so directs all things that orthodoxy leads to wealth," etc.). It is immortal, come what may to the book that contains it.—"Contemporary Review, April 1868.
