The undersigned has the pleasure of announcing to the Wool Growers of this country, that he has now received a large quantity of the celebrated South Down Sheep Wash.

This valuable preparation is highly recommended for safety, convenience, utility and economy. The only labor required with the article now offered to the public is to stir the paste into the quantity of water needed for the sheep that are intended to be dipped. The Sheep Wash is highly recommended and extensively used by the wool Growers of America and South Africa. The Samples that have been used by some of the Estancieros of this County, have given the most perfect satisfaction, and are recommended by them as the most efficacious remedy ever used in this country for further purchase supply either place addy as letter to

At No. 59 CALLE FLORIDA.

The undersigned would respectfully announce to the inhabitants of Buenos Aires and the Argentine Republic, that having completed his extensive premises he has opened the above named establishment in the public on the 25th May, with an immense supply of the celebrated CANNEL COAL GAS, and a choice of ELEGANCE LAMPS, imported from Europe and North America expressly for this market, which for, in every respect, is most passed in the Globe, all of which will be sold on the most reasonable prices. In view of moreover invite the attention of the public to the many advantages of the admirable illuminator over all other light gas burners. Known No 01 being a patent extract from bituminous coal, contains all the illuminating properties of coal gas, and produces a clear, white light, surpassing Gas light itself in brilliancy, and with remarkable softness and purity as to render it infinitely the best light in the world for the eyes, while it costs less than one half as much as gas and is much more economical than the most inferior light in use. The Oil is very cleanly, odorless, and perfectly safe and the lamps are so simple that they can not be got out of order. The unequaled superiority of this Gas over all other artificial illuminants, having been well established throughout Europe and North America [where it has met an adoption unparalleled in the history of improvements], it is now confidently offered to the public as the most perfect and in every respect most desirable illuminant yet introduced. All are invited to call and see the light and judge for themselves, the evening being the best time, to see the result thereof.

NIL FALSI AUDEAM. NIL VERI NON "AUDEAM DICERE". (Cicero.)

SUNDAY June 29th 1862

CONGRESS ON THE CAPITAL.

On yesterday the Senators met to discuss the project presented by the Committee, which we reported in last impression, and a large attendance at the bar awaited the final decision of the first tribunal before which the suit must pass.

Sor. Elizalde made a brilliant oration in favor of the measure, recapitulating the various arguments which he has so often and powerfully brought to bear on the question. He combatted the reasonings of Dr. Sarsfield, at great length and evidently won the admiration of most listeners.

Dr Navarro opposed, on the grounds that the suppression of Buenos Ayres as a province, was unconstitutional and even absurd. He maintained the perfect compatibility of National and Provincial authorities in the same place, quoting Dr Sarsfield's assertion that the U. States afforded this precedent during one year at New York, and six years at Philadelphia. He stated the jealousies of those Argentine Provinces which would have a double right to complain that B. Ayres assumed undue preponderance in the National destinies, fixing the capital without their consent; since Rioja, Jujuy and Mendoza had not yet sent their Senators, and the Deputies of some others were also wanting. He ridiculed the phraseology of the law which said "the Chambers of Buenos Ayres are invited to abdicate" instead of ordaining "let the Chambers be invited." He wished to make this city permanent capital without any federalization, adding that the postponement of five years, left open a door for intrigue, cabal, and disquiet. Quousque tandem! how long, said he, must we go on, with provisional measures, when something decisive may, and must, be done. He expatiated on the merits of General Mitre, but deplored the possibility of serious confusion if be were removed by death or otherwise before the appointed term. He claimed for Buenos Ayres her distinct autonomy as the bulwark of the Argentine Nation and condemned the fusion of two jurisdictions in Congress.

Dr. V. Alsina rebutted the amendment of last speaker, urging the necessity of Congress possessing a certain territory free from all provincial jurisdiction. He charged Dr. Navarro with reviving and exploded idea, in placing both Legislatures in the same city: an carefully jumping over all the objections to such a plan. He concluded by stating that Buenos Ayres has not yet produced that sapient legislator who will project a plan entirely free from defect or inconvenience.

The Chamber retired at 3 P. M. The hour being advanced, we defer further report, until next issue.

Our readers may set down, as agreed upon, the temporary election of B. Ayres. Some details may suffer alteration or vigorous opposition; but the opinion is universally expressed that, for the present, the National authorities cannot be removed from B. Ayres. It is hinted that the actual arrangement is equivalent to a permanent decree, and we hope the term of five years may be read hereafter five hundred.

Immigrants Protection Society.

From time to time we see numbers of our countrymen arrive on these shores, comparatively unfriended and often penniless. Thrown in a foreign country with whose very language they are unfamiliar, it is difficult to conceive any condition more calculated to awaken sympathy. Happily the tide of immigration sets not in too rapidly, and a score of new arrivals finds immediate shelter and employment. The demand for agricultural and domestic labor is such, that a week never passes without good offers of employment.

All this would seem to establish the inutility, or at least secondary importance of an Association for Immigrants' Protection. Yet there are occasions when 250 British subjects, mostly Irishmen, land upon our mole at once, and find themselves, after a tedious voyage, debarred of the rudest comforts. Last year we had the mortification to see a large number forced to take up their temporary quarters in the Immigrants Asylum where beds were so scarce that "their lodging was on the cold ground." Thanks to the assiduity of their ship-chaplain, and the open-handed generosity of all countrymen, including the British merchants and Irish estancieros, a fund was collected to defray their immediate expenses & draft them off to the camp.

It will be asked what more does philanthropy require? Or how can this be improved on? If the immigrants have been heretofore protected, what need of additional care? And in what manner can any Association create artificial means of employment, more than is actually to be found?

Perhaps there would be some force in these objections if the Government afforded proper shelter to immigrants, if British subjects arrived only by the dozen, if the generosity of their countrymen came under any other form than as an alms, and if the newcomers were to be found when required. But all these conditions are wanting; and when we reflect how easily an Association could be formed, how little positive expense it would entail, and how. (For the most part), loans to immigrants could be afterwards recovered, we are surprised not to find this city, like the American capitals, possessing influential clubs with ramifications throughout the country, for the purpose of giving a cordial welcome to our poorer countrymen.

It is proposed to frame a joint-stock Association with shares of 50$ mjc. per annum, which will provide a fund for the hospitality of immigrants and pay their first expenses by way of loan. An average of 100$ or 200$ per head would suffice, and as it is initiated by the Irish estancieros who have the means of repayment in their own hands, it may be supposed that the funds will gradually multiply instead of dying out.

Already some of our most influential English brethern have signaled their warm adhesion to so benevolent and useful a project. We will keep at this office, a Requisition for a meeting to arrange preliminaries, and shall feel happy by lending every assistance to further the realization of the Immigrants Protection Society.

Frightful murder and assassination by a Comisario in the Banda Oriental.

[illegible]

The facts are simply these: Two young men named Ramon and Celestino Ortiz fled from arrest; the police followed with a Comisario. One of those awful visitations of Divine Providence occurred, and one of the young men dropped from his horse apparently lifeless from an attack of epilepsy. The other, seeing this, reined in his horse and calmly awaited the police officers.

He then surrendered himself to the officers of justice, but it appears from what we read in "La Republica" that the Comisario animated with the most cowardly brutality, ordered his soldiers to massacre them.

Not satisfied with this, these ruffians we are informed [by the same paper] dragged the lifeless remains into the town, as a barbarous proof of the authority of the lan l.

It is repugnant to our very feelings to be obliged to give publicity to such unheard of atrocity.

The Government, that would sanction such acts, should tremble for its very existence.

We regard it worse than serfdom, living in a land where impunity exists for such crimes.

The Montevidean government deserve credit so far, for the energy they have displayed in having the murderers of the German family arrested; but we wait, to see them punished.

We hope to see by next mail, that the perpetrators of this Tacuarembo tragedy have been sent in chains to Montevideo.

If ever retribution was necessary—if ever the outraged dignity of the law of the land called for vindication—if ever murder deserved to be punished, we most unhesitatingly say, it is on the present occasion.

The Banda Oriental is as yet in its infancy. Each day men of capital are settling down in the country parts. Each day fresh emigrants are arriving on its shores. Along the whole coast of the Uruguay, enterprises of every description are springing up. Blessed with peace, and a good protective government, this country has a great future; but cursed with bloodthirsty comisarios and police assassins, it is in vain to expect that any upright, intelligent man will live in such a country, where one's life is not only at the mercy of vagabond gauchos, but also of sanguinary functionaries and murderous vigilantes.

Montevideo.

Two new publications have made their appearance, the "Escuadrinador" and the "Comercial." The latter we have as yet only seen; it has no local news, and confines itself to a shipping list and commercial items.

The Oriental consul in Liverpool, seems to be anything but a sleepy character. Some time since he sent to his government a list of the exports, last year, of Great Britain; now he sends a table of imports. He calls attention to the increase of imports from Brazil, Peru and Buenos Ayres.

Mr. Stall (the worthy consul's name) has had to rectify some [illegible] impressions [illegible] in England, about [illegible] [illegible]. We regret [illegible] has not sent us one of the newspapers containing a full account of the [illegible], as we have a very [illegible] with it.

[illegible] of Dr. D. [illegible]

[illegible] Departa- [illegible] manifesto against the charges made by the Minister of Hacienda, reflecting on this body.

The minister's charge is, that they are too free and easy with the public money. We know so little of the merits of the case, that we cannot say whether it is so or not.

Mr Charles Coquelin gives some lucubrations on the paper money, and asserts that paper-money is no money. So far as regards B. Ayres, we agree with this gentleman.

"La Republica" publishes from the "Standard" some of our observations on cotton-growing, and we shall be only too happy to receive any communications from the Banda Oriental on this subject. We promise all our friends seed, who wish to sow it.

The chief of police of Mercedes has seized 5 men and 1 woman, implicated in the murder of the German family at Mr Prangé's.

The Bank of Paysandu has at last received the sanction of the Camara. It will shortly open for business, on a metallic capital, and bids fair to be of the greatest utility in that vicinity.

Personal security is becoming a rather dubious matter in Montevideo, so many cases of personal outrages have occurred: we understand the government is determined upon a course which will prevent a repetition of such frightful scenes as those of Soriano and Tacuarembo.

The rain has been most incessant in the north of the province. Animals for saladero are selling at Concordia at 6 1/2 pesos oro.

The Comisario of the "pantanoso" certifies to having found a corpse in Mr. Raymond's Potrero; the body has not been identified.

A barbarous act has been committed in Mercedes by the authorities. We read in the Reforma Pacifica the following: "that on the 18th instant, in the Policia of Mercedes, 2 men were staked out.

This sort of punishment is unbecoming any civilized community, and we hope to see it discontinued.

The same paper asserts that the Government of Buenos Ayres is sending large armaments to Salto, and that General Flores is going to receive them.

An Italian Mutual Benefit Association is about being started, for the assistance of poor Italians arriving in Montevideo: this is greatly wanted, and if we had one in Buenos Ayres for British immigrants it would be of great service also.

The Montevidian Government are occupied with the passport question and we have every reason to hope that it will be shortly abolished in total.

The lambing season we understand has been rather good, and the camps are covered with a beautiful grass; every day sheep puestos are becoming more numerous and no doubt can exist that the Banda Oriental is the most favored spot in South America for sheep farming.

Exchange on England closed at 10 3/4 to 11.

The road from the well to the river has been prepared for transit with stone and sand.

FUNERAL.—We advise the friends of the late Mr. John Balbin Soriano, that his funeral rites will take place on Tuesday the 1st July proximo in the Colegio Church

THE CHACO.—General Taboada, Governor of Santiago has recently made an Incursion into the Chaco of which the Fraternidad of that city gives account as follows.

General Taboada has lately found out the refuge of the savages which have molested for so many years the Province of Santiago, and which is situated but 15 leagues to the East of the Postado. There are found there large lakes and islands full of algarrobo, That is to say, that all the necessities of life are in abundance, since only water and lumber are required for the construction of forts.

The present line of frontier will be extended on this account, and commander Fernandez will pass with the garrison of Taco Punco to take possession of Beltran thus securing not only the province of Santiago but that of Cordova.

General Taboada remains in the Lake of Postado refreshing his horses to commence operations afresh against the savages.

ARTESIAN WELL.—We have received the following advertisement:

The inauguration will take place to-morrow Sunday the 29th instant. The steamer Gualeguay will leave from the mole at 11½ o'clock, and will return again in case it may not be sufficient to transport all the passengers.

TO THE LADIES.—We cannot invite you; the weather and the season are not fit for you: for flowers we require spring......... for that time we also promise you shall have your feast.

One Durham do. to D. Diego Alvear for $ 8,000.

Four Shropshire Down rams, for $ 2,600, 1,000, 1,100 and 1,000 respectively.

We have received a note from Messrs. Balbin and Plowes to this effect.

"Three bulls have arrived from "Liverpool by the British barque Isa"bella, and will be sold by auction on "Friday the 4th July.

"These animals, as well as these I "tely sold, have been selected and "shipped by Mr. Samuel Renshaw "Phibbs to Messrs. Thomas Duguid "and Co, of this city.

"We send the three Pedigrees of "the bulls to be sold on Friday, in "case they might be of interest to "the Editors."

N. B. The pedigrees of the following animals are to be seen at this Office, being too long for publication—The Cherry Knight, a Durham bull; Duke of Speke, do calf; Grenadier, do young bull.

THE REMAINS OF MURATORE.—Arrived at Rosario on Wednesday by the Constitution, under the care of a Commission composed of Victorica, Varela, Macsini, Carreras, Kemp' O'Connor, Obligado and Rodriguez.

The remains were received by his father, and speeches were pronounced by several gentlemen present.

SAN JUAN.—The Indies of this Province had made a splendid present to the brave Colonel Sandes, on the shape of an gold embroidered flag with the Oriental arms, and in the reverse the following inscription inside a laurel wreath.

San Juan's gratitude to Colonel Sandes,

ROSARIO.—The diligence had arrived from Mendoza and San Juan, without bringing any news of importance.

The pleasure trip to S.n Lorenzo had been postponed until Sunday.

We are, an establishment for the sale of kerosene oil had been opened on the same footing as those here and in Montevideo,

PRACTICAL JOKE.—On Thursd y evening last in San Nicolas Church, a young lady had the entire back part of her cloth talma cut by a well dressed woman behind her, on finding out what the woman had done, she asked her motive whereupon she replied that she knew nothing about it, as her own cloak was cut in like manner.

This is certainly a most unholy trick.

RASCALLY BUSINESS.—The owner of a brick kiln in calle Santa Fe, corner of Junin, is actually excavating the street, and one gentleman's house is in danger of tumbling down, if this enterprizing Basque is not stopped. He has been twice put up, but he can't afford to pay all fine, and in the locality there is neither alcalde, commissary nor vigilante. The Argentine Layard ought to be looked after. He has already taken away one entire square of earth, off calle Arenales, and now is beginning at calle Junin. We may soon expect to see him in calle San Martin.

SIMON BOCCANEGRA.—To-night the first representation of this splendid opera comes off at Colon. The scenery will be very grand; Master playing the Doge, and Mdlle Altieri his daughter. We have heard the music, and esteem it, especially in the last act quite equal to Verdi's other compositions. The directors are on sale at Colon.

If Amateurs and connoisseurs will please attend. The [illegible] should remove many characters who converse during the solos.

STEAMERS.—The Salto sails to-day for Uruguay,

Pavon—Starts to-morrow for Rosario.

Monay—is due to day from Montevideo, and returns on Monday.
