ENGLISH SEMINARY, For Young Ladies,

The students who have come to the public school from the English Seminary will be removed to the new building, which is now in course of erection, on Tucumán Street, where with the very important accommodations for boarders, hall, library, etc., it will be a school of increased staff of very competent teachers, the system of education fitted to the requirements of the time, will be vigorously pursued.

Mrs. McLean, for some years principal teacher in the English Seminary, will also be connected with her establishment.

The conduct of the school, the discipline, the thoroughness of the religious instruction, combining moral and spiritual culture, and practically preparing the young for their future position and responsibilities.

The undersigned is happy to assure the parents of the services of Mrs. Davis recently arrived from England, whose accomplishments sufficiently fit her for the instruction of music, drawing, French, Spanish, etc., to her boarders. A French resident teacher will also be provided, and the studies will be taught by qualified professors.

To parents in the camp who desire to send their sons to the seminary, whether in the city or country, advantages offered by first rate boarding schools in England and the United States, and the educational advantages of our school.

A prospectus will be forwarded to any part of the city or country on application.

Henry J. McLean.

The South Down GOLDEN CROWN.

A guarantee for the quality of the lamb will be given.

The lamb produced, which is sent by mail at the expense of the company, is of the best quality, and is guaranteed to contain not less than 100 pounds of fat, resulting in the compact and juicy meat, which is the result of only being exposed to the sun while we are, to the best of our knowledge, the only ones to do this.

The most satisfactory guarantee is given to the consumer, that the lamb is of the best quality, and is the result of the best care and attention.

We are sure of the quality of our lamb, and we are confident that you will be satisfied with it.

With thanks, Messrs. Berry & Walker,
Calle Defensa corner of Moreno.
