

Wool. Arrivals from the camp have diminished considerably and our month's supply is nearly exhausted.

Towards the middle of the month a better demand for this article has been noted and about 20,000 arrobas have been sold at current rates although prices for wool show a downward tendency in price from $7.75 to $7.91.

The present stock consists of about 40,000 arrobas which is a very probable will be disposed of before the arrival of the new clip in November.

During the past few days extensive transactions have been spoken of but nothing is publicly known.

A parcel of 48 bales arranged from San Pedro de Corvo, Entre Rios and Corrientes we have had no arrivals nor sales to date.

Guatemala about 140 bales from Corvo have been added during the fortnight at 27 1/2 and a few bales hide at 48 1/2 per 400 lbs equivalent to 1 mill, imports have decreased since the beginning of the greater activity in this article, imports have been considerably quiet although of an account of a new demand and commensurate prices.

Sales this fortnight exceed 4,000 head and add chiefly between 8120 to 8000 dollars. Several pieces have been bought by persons at 100 to 120 lbs per head.

Hair. The hair has not seen any important transaction in the market this month, although a few parcels from the province have added at 800.

From Entre Rios 400 arrobas sold at 27 1/2 and 1/2 bales at 25 and a very selected parcel of 400 arrobas at 24 to 25 1/2 and a small parcel of very high price.

From Corrientes 100 bales sold at 24 1/2 and 1/2 bales and 200 arrobas in the same report in the former article.

In the latter case being the season of the year at 120 packages, 100 from Concordia in the Uruguay at 120 and 200 from Gualeguayguán in the same river at 130.

Woolen shawls from this place sold at 125 per mill.
