WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1862.

CHRISTMAS EVE.

TO-DAY, being the vigil of Merry Christmas, brings with it many a dear remembrance of "home, sweet home." The difference of season, country, and customs robs the festival of half its value in our eyes, but even in Buenos Aires we have some similarities with the time-honored observances peculiar to our island homes.

The cheerful voices of the "waits", as they go on their midnight rounds, saluting the various members of each family with the compliments of the season, in stentorian chorus, bear some affinity to the boisterous revels of Noche Buena, inasmuch as both are very apt to murder sleep, but the nuisance is tolerated, in honor of the occasion.

We have no holly and ivy in S. America, nor the amiable diversion which is consecrated beneath this domestic charm; but there is a custom among Porteña families of visiting each other, to exchange friendly courtesies, which is equally appropriate, on the festival of peace.

The mid-night Mass, so popular a devotion in Ireland, is here called Misa de gallos, but ... discontinued in the city ow... frequent breaches of religious decorum. It is however ... ted in the camp, where we ... the satisfaction of witne... ishmen and natives con... s tribute of reverence to ... ay of the Messiah.

... the foreign visitors ... in Rome crowd to the Basilica of St. Mary Major's whe... the Pope sings high-mass, at 10 ... with all the splendor of ... rites so characteristic of ... tifical Court and R. Ca... ervice. Certes in no other ... is Christmas ushered in ... so magnificent a ceremonial. ... Germany they are now busily decking out the Christmas tree; in merry England there is no thought but of rejoicing, the plum pudding engrosses all culinary attention, while school-boys returning for vacation, and other absent members of the family are expected, perhaps from beyond the seas, to make up the circle at the festive board. Contributions are freely given to provide good cheer for the distressed and fatherless, Christmas boxes of all descriptions invade the bounds of economy, and every one seems to merit the benediction of the angel "to men of good will."

Dicky Sams evince an unusual pride, in the exhibition at St. John's market, for indeed Liverpool seldom presents so animated a spectacle as the prize-beef show of Christmas Eve.

Thus in every part of Christendom, except Russia, all classes vie in saluting the great festival of to-morrow; the Greeks alone obstinately refusing to call it Christmas, insisting that to-day is the 12th December, and that the Julian Calendar is 12 days wrong.

We can, nevertheless, afford to forget minor differences, and, while we waft across the Atlantic a word of kind remembrance to our friends at home, we offer the hand of good fellowship indifferently to our native and foreign brethren, wishing them sincerely, "All the compliments of the season, and A HAPPY CHRISTMAS!"

INDIAN INVASIONS.

PEOPLE'S minds are so occupied now-a-days with the currency question, Circus Co., and what not, that were it not for the recent invasions of the Indians, any one who would broach the Indian question would be snubbed and laughed at.

We have said our say on the currency question, and no matter how long the subject may be argued, and how numerous the leaders of our colleagues, we will not alter our opinion on the subject: paper will never redeem paper. Specie must be introduced; without it, all the laws which our gifted legislators can pass, will not alter the value of an inconvertible, baseless, paper money.

But it is not the currency question which we now have to deal with, but a danger more imminent, but less injurious, to the country,—the Indian invasions.

How much money is wasted yearly in defending our frontier, how much life and property lost by invasions, &c, we all unhappily know too well. Instead, however, of these evils decreasing with time, we find that they are daily augmenting, and the old cry of "Revolution, Revolution" has of late days been changed into the war whoop of the red man.

We will not stop to inquire into the cause of these recent Indian invasions, nor remark upon the fact that, since General Mitre has become President, these savages have become more troublesome. Neither will we draw attention to the probabilities that, since revolution has become impossible, the enemies of the present Government have leagued with the barbarian to perpetuate Argentine troubles. But we will ask General Mitre, why he does not avail himself of the means at his disposal, to conciliate the savage. Why is that the measures adopted by the Government of the U. States have not been tried here? Why is it that, along the frontier-lines of the Republic, the Indian agent has not his offices, to barter with them for their produce, to supply them with baubles and seed, and thus, by degrees, civilize the enemy which the republic, with all its boasted wealth and glory, is unable to subjugate.

War is not the natural state of the Indians of these countries. On the contrary, we have the experience of the Jesuits to bear us out in the assertion that they are submissive and industrious, and with proper treatment can be converted into useful members of society. But in truth, we have never yet gone the right way about making the savage our friend.

The Minister of War and Gen. Mitre are out on the frontier; they have soldiers by thousands, and confidently hope to make a clean sweep of all the savages who so harass and annoy us. As well might they think to destroy all the deer of the Pampas, or catch all the 'teroteros' in the country. They may succeed in temporarily stopping invasions, killing a few hundreds; but the Indian will have his revenge sooner or later, and the moment our valiant generals turn their backs, God help the frontier settlers!

We propose, therefore, that, at the points most exposed on our frontier line, colonies be established, with Indian agents attached: that immigrants who would be willing to go out and reside at these stations should receive certain advantages, for instance, every man should receive, in perpetuity or in fee, one square league of land; that seed and stock should be supplied by the Nat. Government, not only for the station and its inhabitants, but also for distribution amongst all the Indians who would wish to accept it. The best seeds for distribution are cotton and wheat: cotton, because it will enrich the grower and the country; wheat because it is more civilizing in its nature.

Nothing can be simpler than this plan. It will cost less, and be more effectual, than the present system. The first year or two might cause a slight drain on the treasury, but after a few years the stations would be self-supporting and steadily augmenting. In Iowa and several other of the far Western states, the paternal influence of the United States Government has had the most signal success. The Indian agent acts as the attorney, protector and advocate of the Indian, not of the Government. Who, may we ask, is the agent of the Indians here? Who is it whose duty it is to save the red man from being robbed and cheated by his civilized neighbours? So long as we hold the Indians at arm's length, and take from them their lands, without barter or right or indemnity, so long shall we have invasions and inroads, rapine and desolation.

MONTEVIDEO.

The passing cloud, which obscured the peaceful prospects of the neighbouring republic, is dispelled. All fears of invasion or internal disorder are at an end. The several persons arrested on political grounds have been set at liberty, giving bail for their good conduct. Cap. Soriano produced 4 securities, D. Manuel Flores 1, Col. Acosta 1, Benito Santos 3, Luis Magariños 2, Col. Caravajal 1, José Aguilar 1, Amancio Barrios 1, David Fernandez 1, and Sor Amaro remains an inmate of the Caridad Hospital.

On Sunday was to come off a grand bull fight at Villa Union: 8 animals were provided for the ring, six of which were to be slain. The Spanish Admiral Pinzon volunteered his band of music for the occasion. The opera "Indijena" was also advertised for Sunday evening "at half price" as the high figure demanded in Buenos Aires was a failure. It was dedicated to Montevideo by the Oriental poet Fajardo, although in this city we were led to regard it as a triumph of Argentine literature. Poor Chateaubriand, if he saw Atala in this guise, he would say she had caught the small-pox.

A tedious controversy is going on between Baadrix and Belaustegui, as to some monetary transactions with Gen. Urquiza. One of the ecclesiastical dignitaries had died, and his obsequies were celebrated in the Ejercicios Chapel, instead of the Matriz, the latter being still under interdict. The French man-o'-war Duguay Trouin, 80 guns, arrived from Valparaiso, en route for France. The Fulminante is coming to B. Ayres with the admiral, who is about to take adieu of the French Minister, before returning to Europe, as he has been replaced by Admiral Chaigneau.

The Committee of Exhibitors have received from the indefatigable Oriental Con. Gen. at London, Mr. Neil, very favorable proposals respecting the despatch of several Swiss, Belgian and German families as colonists. Montevideo is required to pay 20$ silver on every adult immigrant, but we read nothing of the further provisions for their maintenance &c. The Committee has handed the project over to the Junta Administrativa, strongly advocating the benefits to be derived from the acquisition of so many useful hands at a trifling cost.

Three Swiss converts have been received into the R. Catholic church, at the Ejercicios, an immense concourse assisting at the ceremony.

The Buffis are performing at the San Felipe theatre.

TO OUR COLLEAGUES.

Take notice that the Standard declares a suspension of hostilities until after Christmas, in order to give time to bury the disputes of the past year. Each of the combatants will remain on the field of battle and the usual courtesies may be exchanged freely between all. Due notice shall be given of a recommencement of warlike operations which it is hoped will be conducted, in future in a manner honorable to all parties.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

FROM the north we learn that farmers have begun watering their flocks, as it has not rained in many parts for more than a month, and the camps are terribly dry. It is almost impossible to mind sheep from the density of thistles, and great fears are entertained that points of sheep will be lost in every direction, without the hope of recovery. We are told that for the last fifty years, the thistles were never known to be so high and general as this year. Land that never had a thistle on it before is this year literally covered; as a natural consequence the sheep are beginning to get poor from constant rounding up, to avoid their cutting.

The agent of the Northern Railway has declined acceding to Mr. Hopkins' request, to name the stations after the four principal friends to the road. We commend Mr. Zimmerman's good taste. If the principal initiators of the road are entitled to have station houses called after them we think Mr. Hopkins himself should have a primary claim, and our "amigo ausente", Mr. Croskey, should not be forgotten.

WESTERN RAILWAY.

The company met yesterday in the Bolsa saloons in rather larger number than usual and decided unanimously in favour of the second proposition of the Government selling their shares at cost price with 6 per cent interest per annum since the commencement.

What the Government is going to do with the line nobody knows, we hope in any case that it will be continued to the Villa Mercedes and Chivilcoy.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COTTON-GROWERS.

As cotton-growing is a novelty in Buenos Ayres, and as many persons have taken an interest in the matter, we again publish the mode of planting in other countries, that it may serve as a guide.

In Brazil the mode of cultivation is as follows:—

The seed is put to steep the night before planting; the land is first cleared of wood and underbrush, which is burned where it falls; then, the ground is hoed up into hills about 7 feet apart, in each of which 7 or 8 seeds are placed. In ten or fifteen days, the seeds sprout, and, when the young plants have attained some strength 4 or 5 of the weaker ones are rooted up and thrown away, leaving 3 or 4 plants in each hill. In from 6 to 8 months they yield the first crop of cotton and they continue to bear well for five or six years, provided they are properly trimmed, and the ground cleared from weeds, &c., once or twice a year. When the cotton is planted, it is usual to plant or sow rice, beans, pumpkins, or other crops in the spaces between the hills. Even Indian corn is so planted, and with advantage, on account of the shade it affords to the young cotton trees.

Of course, this is only done when the cotton is planted, as in a short time the tree attains the height of 12 to 15 feet and, if the soil is good, the trunk often grows to 4 inches in diameter, and naturally branches out in proportion. No manure of any kind is used for the cotton crop, nor anywhere, indeed, except in gardens and lots for greens. The seed is generally planted in November, the plant its flower mostly in June, but ... freely almost all the year; the ... of the harvest is in September and October, but cotton is picked, also nearly all the year. The product per acre, and the value of cotton-lands, cannot be well determined, because of the limited experience in this department of culture.

In Australia the following method is adopted:—

The plough and hoe are used in the cultivation of cotton; the rows are 6 feet apart, the distance between plants in the same row 5 feet. It is thought best, after each crop, to trim the tree, leaving only one or two stems, about 3 feet high. Manure has not yet been required; when it is, it shall be the salt-water mud of the rivers will be applied. The seeds are planted in September and the early part of October, the plants are in flower in December ... the cotton is picked commences in the first year of its growth, in the last week of February, and in the second and subsequent years one month earlier, and continues until June.

The usual yield of an acre is from 1,000 to 1,200 pounds in the seed, or 250 to 300 pounds cleaned.

FOREIGN MISCELLANEA.

A smart shock of earthquake was felt at Jamaica on the evening of the 2d ult.

A letter from Rome states that the Pope's Irish Brigade is at length finally dissolved.

The Bank of England has advanced its rate of discount from 2 to 3 per cent.

On Thursday evening, the aggregate subscription at the London Mansion House, in aid of the distress in Lancashire, reached the munificent sum of £100,000.

IN the course of the excavations now carried on outside St. Sebastian's Gate at Rome, an extensive ancient Jewish cemetery has been discovered, which abounds in sarcophagi, paintings, inscriptions, &c.

A letter in the "Times," from the uncle of Mr. Dillon, lately killed in a duel at Paris, states that he was "an Englishman, and son of a Protestant clergyman of the Established Church, and nearly allied to an English Peer, yet living.

"The very contrast," says a letter from Turin, "between the parsimony of the Government and the splendid liberality of individuals has also given grave offence; and I myself heard a Garibaldian, a man of note and station, declare in the open street his shame that while the very bed Garibaldi lay on was the gift of an unknown Englishman, who had never seen, and might in every likelihood never see Garibaldi, his own grateful country had contributed to him a pair of worn-out sheets and twelve leeches!"

THERE has appeared a remarkable letter of remonstrance addressed to the Grand duke Constantine by some Russian officers of the army in Poland, protesting against being compelled to do the work of executioners, and declaring that in the event of an uprising in Poland, the army would take part rather with than against the people. This document was sent for publication to the editors of the "Kolokol," who, being convinced of its genuineness, forwarded a copy to the London daily paper.

At an exhibition given in Troy recently, a committee of ladies was appointed to make a pilgrimage through the audience, and select the handsomest man in the room. The fair judges promptly discharged their duty, for which they were recipients of the loudest plaudits of the assemblage. The lucky man, whom the decision of the ladies pronounced the handsomest present, was the major of the Twenty-fourth Regiment. The superb major received a prize as a reward for his good looks. The whole affair must have surprised the gallant major, who, it is reported, was conveyed to his residence in a hack, but whether in charge of the charming committee does not appear.—American paper.

—WE read in a Paris letter:—"Is he for the Pope 'quand même,' or for Victor Emmanuel? Walking the other day on the beach at Biarritz, His Majesty happened to meet an intelligent-looking boy, about eight or nine years old, who took off his hat as he passed. The Emperor courteously returned the salute, and said, "Are you English?" "No," answered the boy very quickly, and drawing himself up, "I'm American." "Oh! American, are you? Well, tell me, which are you for, North or South?" "Well, father's for the North, I believe, but I am certainly for the South. For which of them are you, Sir?" The Emperor stroked his moustache, smiled, hesitated a little, and then said, "I am for both." "For both, are you? Well, that's not so easy, and 'twill please nobody." His Majesty let the conversation drop, and walked on.

A SOLEMN service has been celebrated by order of the Emperor of China, in the Roman Catholic Church of Shanghai, for the repose of the soul of Admiral Protet. All the Chinese authorities assisted at the ceremony, as well as the Consuls of France and England, the Imperial Marine, and the expeditionary force.

THE LANCASHIRE DISTRESS.—The Liverpool fund in aid of the distressed cotton operatives of Lancashire and Cheshire, has reached the munificent sum of £35,576. 10s. 10d. On Thursday another appeal in behalf of the fund was sent by the Mayor to the offices of the brokers and merchants of the town, and up to Saturday a sum of £790, (included in the aggregate mentioned above,) was subscribed; there is every reason to believe that this further call will be still more liberally responded to. There has also been opened, under the auspices of the Mayor, a depot for the receipt of parcels of clothing for the unemployed operatives; and a large number of donations of this character have been made to the fund.

PAPER MONEY.—Every labourer, every clerk, every person with a fixed income from mortgages or other sources, finds himself to-day defrauded by act of Congress of one third of his income. The daily labourer, receiving one dollar a day, in consequence of M. Chase's paper money policy now receives a paper dollar worth only about seventy cents; in other words, he is compelled to give six days labour for the price of four days.

Gold was sold to-day at one hundred and thirty one, and everything that is necessary for the support of life advanced at least forty per cent. $98,000,000 of certificates of indebtedness instead of $98,000,000 of legal tender notes.—New York World.

LOCAL EVENTS.

NORTHERN RAILWAY. The number of passengers on the line during the past 12 days has been 3910, not including those who pay by the month.

HERR BUSMEYER a German pianist who has been very well received in the Brazilian Court is expected shortly to appear on the Colon stage.

Nothing is heard of young Arthur Napoleon whose proximate arrival we noticed a short time ago. We hope he has not gone to Europe.

BANK DIRECTORS. Messrs. Casares, Vignal Gilmour and Cazon have accepted their appointments and Messrs. Anchorena and Balbin have refused.

NEW CIRCUS. Messrs Lee Brothers, who have been lately performing in the towns on the Pacific coast, are on their way to this city.

EL PUNTO to-day commences the yearly vacation of the law courts of the country and lasts until the 8th January, although our learned Judges generally manage to extend it for two or three days longer.

It is a great pity that the same Custom does not prevail in the press as it would be the only time through out the year in which we could see fields and breathe camp air, for more than one day at a time.

ACCIDENT. The day before yesterday a house took fire in calle Esmeralda, happily without any damage of importance; a Frenchman committed suicide in calle Maypu, and a boy was burnt in calle Potosi, he was the son of an Italian bookbinder.

RIO SALADO. Governor Taboada of Santiago had extended the concession to Dn. Esteban Rams. The works of canalization of the Rio Dulce were being continued with activity under the personal superintendence of the Governor.

COTTON SEED.—The best time for planting is the present, those who have obtained the seed from our office should lose no time in doing so.

The instructions for its culture which we received from the Cotton supply association we gave away to several friends and members of the National Government. However for the benefit of parties interested we give the chief directions in another column.

THE INDIANS.—Continue causing considerable anxiety the more so as the public are without any information, and false reports are taken for facts.

NEW STATUE.—It is proposed to erect in Cordova over a fountain in the principal square the statue of General Paz, the first officer of the Republic and native of that province.

SANTA FÉ.—The deficit in the budget of this province for the coming year 1866 will amount to 2666 silver dollars and it is estimated that it will be made good by the legislature.

DOLORES.—The Inspector General of Militia has left for this place, we hear to settle some disputes between the justice of the peace and foreign residents of the town.

SR. RIVETRA.—We are very well pleased to hear has been appointed to an honorary post in the London and River Plate Bank.

DR. VELEZ SARSFIELD —Present and Minister of Finances it is rumoured will retire very shortly from that post.

PLEASURE TRIP.—The last train to Moreno will convey passengers for Mr. Picot's dilligence, which will leave Moreno and start immediately from the Villa Mercedes to arrive there in time for mid night mass, next day being a holiday may be spent in walking about the town which is the best in the camp.

THE FAIRY.—Sold almost time ago in this city arrived at Rosario in tow of a sailing vessel.

It will be employed in collecting peaches from the island during the season.

USURY FIGHT.—One of the principal duties of the municipality and a legitimate field of pursuit for an enterprising young vigilante will be the pursuit of our fruit venders who go about the streets offering poor unripe pears which although agreeable to the sight are more profitable to the apothecary and doctor, than to the Consumer

Advice from the Pacific state that $5,000,000 of the English loan had reached Peru, but remained deposited in the hands of the consignees, the Government still refusing to accept the loan. A revolution had again broken out in Bolivia

SAUNDERS & REINER,

ENGINEERS, MILLWRIGHTS,

SMITHS, &c.

157—Paseo de Julio—157

BUENOS AYRES.

SAUNDERS & REINER beg to announce to the public that they have commenced business at the above address, in the above branches, at the premises formerly occupied by Messrs. Saunders & Co. as Engineers and Millwrights, and hope by strict attention to business, simple and moderate charges, to merit a share of the public patronage.

Mr. Wood, Pattern Maker, and designing machine worker, has commenced business on his own account, and solicits the support of his friends and the public generally.

The great merit of the machine which has occupied Mr. Wood's time and attention for the last two years, is that it can give the inserts of pumps, and also bring in the screw for the bucket, at one operation, and with one movement, which is a great saving of time and labour, and a most important requirement.

The only cure

The Southdown sheep wash is the only effectual cure for the scab in sheep, the Estancieros in the Banda Oriental where this wash has been universally tried it when the wool began to fall off and now they reap the benefit every sheep in their flocks grows an entire fleece; the value of the wool saved by the timely application of this wash more than pay for all the sheep wash which the farmer might require for the next twelve months.

So many remedies have been advertized and failed that the agents feels he has to contend with a sheet repugnance, but as some of our principal sheep Estancieros have used the wash and proved its utility he can confidently refer to these parties if necessary.
