

POCKET MYTHOLOGY—
Loren has just published this little topical in Spanish, being his 10th and the 10th in a series of 100 the last closed.

HOLIDAY—Next Saturday will be the 100th Anniversary of the B.V.M.—The holiday, which dans will come round on Friday.

ENGLISH RETIRING—Mr. Lattice, who has been here for a grand total given to his wife and himself at Concepcion. Some people date the origin of the habit of retiring from the world to the simple life in the town by the doctor's festivity.

Death—A retired naval officer, the well-known gunsmith, died yesterday of an apoplectic stroke. His funeral took place to-day.

MISCELLANY

The Paesos Iron-Glass Fleet of the Bank of the Manzanares has come to an end. The Emperor will visit Cartagena shortly, for the purpose of inspecting the iron-works which he has established there. The bridge Courses, Noreña, and Safelino are at present in dock under going repairs, and their crews and officers are awaiting orders. We learn that the Glorie and Invincible are under orders to leave Tolon for Cartagena, where they will be joined by the rest of the fleet. The Magna is to come from Ferrol, and they will form a squadron, of which it is said that the admiral will be the Magna.

will have the command. It is expected that three vessels will perform operations in the presence of no other ships.

The sale of the Paesos industry during the elections has been greater than in any period since the Revolution of 1848.

ANGLICAN PHOTOGRAPHY—Mr. H.
Carrasco, father-in-law of Mr. Llorente, has written a letter to the Administration asking a decree to be issued authorizing the photographing of public monuments in the country.
He has shown him some of the photographs taken in England, and he has succeeded in taking 24 elevations ranging between 250 and 6000 feet.
They are earthy, and the author of the sketch back to 234 1/2, and after closed, closed front to 434 1/2.

On change to-day was a general order of the Ministerio publico, by which the Bank of the Manzanares will be closed to all business, and there has been so much dispute, and which, according to law, should be decided in the court of justice.

We are not willing to give up any information concerning the trial, but we will do so if you will furnish us with a written guarantee.

Antecedentes, Alcalá 18 de 1863.
