FRENCH PACKET REVIEW

The present political condition of the complications, we are, at the sailing of this packet, greatly excited on the subject of a war between this country and Montovideo, which many regard as inevitable. Reposing, however, the most implicit confidence in the sound discretion of President Mitre, the ruler of this nation, his great anxiety to preserve peace, and also in the general feeling entertained by all men of property, that we cannot afford to go to war, no matter what the pretence, we feel justified in assuring our foreign readers, that all the matters in dispute will be arranged amicably. The remote cause of the justifiable revolution of Flores in the Banda Oriental, which until terminated will always create disputes and re-criminations in the River Plate.

The reports on cotton growing, from our brother editor, we regret to say have not been as favourable as could be wished, owing to a worm which have made its appearance in some of the districts of Corrientes. Still, we are proud to say, that there are grounds for believing we will have a few hun-
