THURSDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1863. We'do not think it will require any great effort, on our part, to convinc all thinking and importial foreigners, that if the Republic of the Uruguay is in no condition to contend with the combined attacks of General Flores and President Mitre, neither is the Argentina Republic in a situation to declare war against that country.

The declaration of war, by Presiden Mitre, against the Republic of the Uruguay, would be one of the most could be guilty of. We perceive that the majority of the native press are goading on the National Government step; but we, actuated only by the sincerest motives for the welfare of the Sincerest motives for the welfare of the country, and durability of the present administration, tell President M.tre, Bawane, The soldiers have been sent for from Rosario; the steamers are all taking in coal : every firelock in the city has been bought up ; the mail-boats, which hi:herto plied between this city and Montevideo, have been storped, and last, not least, Marmol has returned, having only succeeded in widening still further the breach which previously existed between the Governments.

In sight of all these facts, can any man arrive at other conclusion than that we are going to war, with

And yet when we take a calm glance at the present state of affairs, we most unbestiatingly say that a war is im-possible. Not that we think Montepossible. Not that we think Monte-video is more than a match for us. Not that we believe such a stop would be unpopuler. Not that we are ignorant of the thousand and one volunters who would rust to enlist themselves for the crusude. But that we feel satisfied it is nother the interest nor the desire of President Mirre to pre-cipitate the country which he rules in the River Phick. To lighthet torch in the River Phick.

The "Nacion Argentina" which is the organ of President Mitro's Govern-ment, has very properly taken up the matter which we called its attention to, namely, the arrest of foreigners in the camp. We are happy to see that our colleague fully coincides with our views on this subject, and in order that our fellow countrymen in the country districts may be aware of the opinions of President Mitre on this question, we translate the following remarks published in his paper:—

BUENOS AYBES GOING AHEAD Launch of a Second Steamer.

Yesterday Barracas was thrown into great excitoment, by the fact that Mr. Marshall, the pioneer of iron steamer building, was about to launch a second hoat.

A great number of persons was assemb'ed on both banks of the river to witness the proceedings, amongst whom were several of our leading merchants and several of our leading merchants and other gentlemen interested in the progress of the country. At eleven o'clock precisely, Miss Marshall, assisted by Mr. Mensies, the son of one of the proprietors, dashed a bottle of champagne against the vessel's bow, and immediately afterwards the 'Era' of champagne against the vessel's bow, and immediately afterwards the 'Era' the state of affairs in Catamarca is most began to slide rapidly towards the depletable. EDITOR'S TABLE.

There is a sort of cross firing going on between the nutive papers which is rather amusing. In the mildest manner possible the 'Tribuna' pitches into the Nacion Argentina, and the other with characteristic coolness, replies. The subscribers are getting a little tired of the thing; they wish the centending editors would arrange their disputes in a more emphatic manner: but, after all. probably now that we have got no Congress nor Camara to amuse us, this newspaper debating is not without its advantages.

The locust, we regret to say, is making its appearance, not only in this but also in the other provinces. In Entre Rios it is particularly formidable at present, and giving rise to the most erious apprehensions.

We notice that heavy contracts are being entered into by some of our mer-chants with the sainderistos of the Uruguay, who are now commencing to work. In Concepcion, our correspon-dent informs us that a young Englishman has just arrived to receive hides and tallow from firming's exteriors Eight hundred animals per day, we hear, will be the average killing. We find, by the Resario papers, that deplorative. Statuscent and Company are waiting fast in public estimation. A misunderstanding has arisen between Maubeein and General Rojo, the National Commissioner: and the latter National Commissioner: and the latter is accused of having plundered the province of cuttle, sheep, and horse, on the piec of the necessity of the National Government. The arrivet of the Yederal judge it was thought would estitle the disputes consequent on the spoliations of the National Commissioner, but the claimants for remumera-
