THE BANDA ORIENTAL.

As the Republic of the Uruguay is thickly populated with English speaking foreigners, we consider that many of our readers at home look with anxiety over our columns to see what nows from that neighbouring republic. We regret to say that the Flores revolution still wears on. Fiores has attacked an important town on the river Uruguavicalled Paysandu, and notwithstanding all the fellow's bombastic threats, and promises, got signally de-feated. A defeat however in the River teated. A detent however in the favor-Plate significanciting unless the prime mover or leader of the royalation is captured and at once executed. As usual Flores, in his attack on Paysandu, took good care of himself, and when he heard that the Government greeral Servando Gonez, was coming up on his rent, he at once six daddlad. He is now making forced marches for a place called Ta uarembo, which is situated on the Brazilian frontier. Meanwhile Colonel Olid, who was in command of some two thrusand may belonging to the Govern ment, has become so disgusted at the debility of the Executive, and the lengthened duration of this scandalous waiting orders to attack Flores, having insignia of the ultra anti Flores party. It is generally believed that if Olid acts with his usual determination he will make very short work of Flores.
