Trick Culture in Cuba Misc.

The following copy of a Decree of the Government of Cuba lica has been received at the Consulate in London—

Ministry of Foreign Affairs, National and Palace, San Juan, 13th August, 1863.

Consented that the undersigned should be of Mr. John Maclean, 60 years of age, of Irish extraction and agricultural profession, in which he has obtained permission to settle in the territory of this Republic for the purpose of cultivating the soil, and of his conversation with the Honorable Saragatzi and Oquendo, &c.

John Maclean engages to bring 200 colonies, of Irish labourers, to Cuba, which he has obtained permission to settle in the territory of this Republic for the purpose of cultivating the soil, and of his conversation with the Honorable Saragatzi and Oquendo, &c.

From the time of their arrival the colonies shall be subject to the authorities and laws of the Republic, but they shall not be liable to any military recruitment unless in the case of foreign invasion, when all the colonies shall take up arms in defence of their adopted country.

From the time that the colonies enter the country they continue the protection of every other citizen, and placing themselves throughout under the laws of the Republic in laws, and authorities.

Every colony of the male sex, for a period of 18 years of age, shall receive 10 mananzas (about 200 acres) of land, in his absolute property, and of 10 mananzas (about 200 acres) every male child under 10 years of age, a further grant of five mananzas of land, for each colony.

The Government engage to pay him, for his transportation, the sum of 75 dollars, divided from New York to the harbour Saragatzi.

Certified by the hand of Le C. President.

The Secretary of State in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs especially charged with Ensigning and the Honorable Saragatzi and Oquendo, &c.

The undersigned is authorized to act in the above-mentioned business, and is willing to make further grants of land to persons desiring of settling in the territory of this Republic, and of his conversation with the Honorable Saragatzi and Oquendo, &c.

GEORGE W. EWEN, Consul in London for the Republic of Cuba, Consulate, 4, Adams' Court, Old Broad-street, E. C.
