Alas with shame we confine that Buenos Ayres is fast tending to the former state of things, for the laws here afford as little accurity to life as in Mozambique or New Guines. There was indeed a time when centlemer went to the opera without sword-caucs or Monte Cristos, when the milkmen did not carry pistols, and when the streets of this city were rafe by any hour of day or night. There was h time when murder and robbery were so unknown in our camps that one pistola,' Things are no longer so, and had intended doing so, remained quiet and discondited; and the play went on quietly to the end. Since then, at some entertainments, it is customary to ad-vertise that a short interval would be allowed, five minutes before the finale, for persons to leave. Why cannot that be done here?

It cannot be from any desire to get home soon, for they are slmost invariably to be afterwards found standing outside, shoving their Gorilla countenances, adorned with evil-smelling cigars, into the faces of the women, when coming out.

The Chamber of Doouties for the province of Buenos Avres will meet to day to make the scrutiny of the recent elections to the body. It is almost certain the farce will be declared leval. and this is so much the better, as we are tired of the rowdy practices on those frivalous occasions.

Another shooking outrage took nices on Sunday night. Two Irishmen were conversing in the calle Mayo, when a mulatto came up and without the slightest provocation plunged a koffe into one of them, under the ribs. The ruffian was seized, but will be put at liberty before our poor countryman can leave the Hospital.

The murder of Mr. Young, mentioned in a leading article, is one of the most brutal and blood-thirsty outrages in in our dismal chapter of British sub Yet we are confident some plea will be made to save the ruffian's life, and he may crospe like Kinby's murderer.

Nothing new is known remeeting the calle Parque tragedy. We are informed the unhappy victim was left to die on the pavement, and his dead budy remained for more than an hosfr alacking up the side path. The Tribung says the Commissary has not yet (19th last) sent in his report, although 31 hours have clapsed. The Fre paper states that it was a screen who instrument was a Monte Cristo pistol; others fancy it was a practical Argentine joke, but we are of opinion it was r repetition of the German's case who was shot for not giving the officer the side-path.

Dr. Gutierrez displays an adminable sang froid, under the impending tereays that he cats, sleeps, and drinks us well at ever; and considering his awful position, and that the 'Argentine Nation' may be completely anni by the gaucho-minister, it betrays tragedy: the numbers were published growing in his dead.
