SATURDAY, JUNE 11, 1861.

AMERICA IN DANGER, A certain Chillen gentleman, rehe supposes philosophy to consist, has startled the scientific and political world by announcing that the continent discovered by Columbus is in imminent It is not a Mendoza earthquake, but a shock between the two hemispheres, which threatens to destroy this great portion of the cartle. Perhans we should nay as little attention to Sor. Bilban's varioustion as to the dangers predicted of comets, or Dector Cumming's Millennium, were it not that this new prophet has gained many believers, and nervous patriots may commit suicide, if we do not show them the fallacy of this Dodona oracle.

Europe versus America : here is the great question of the day. The moparchies of the Old world are iculous of the superior progress, liberty and civilization of the republics of the New, A conspiracy of kings or tyrants (words supposed synonymous) has been enter-ed into, the first fruits whereof are apparent in the downful of democracy in Mexico and Sto Domingo, and the nnexation of the Chincha Islands. Therefore it is time for all republicans and almost equal to all the rest collectively, has been converted to the nonarchical system through French influence ; but the retirement of Eng. land and Spain from the Vera Cruz expedition seems to contradict the existence of a conspiracy in that case. Moreover if one of "the rotten menarchies" was able without any extraordinary effort and single-handed, to subdue half the republican strength of Spanish America, how infinitely greater must have been the rottenness of the repul-lic which succumbed, or can 20,000 rotten royalists avail more than nine millions sound democrats,

But we will suppose that Messrs. Bilbao, Varela, and Guido apply the term in a moral not physical sense, and in this case the most robust American virtue has reason to tremble, not at a European combination, but at the sim-ple frown of any corrupt-midded mor-arch who can command a dozen steel-plated frigates and 100,000 demoralized bayonets. Therefore, it would be unplated frigates and 100,000 demoralized bayonets. Therefore, it would be unwise to bring down Russia, Prusis, France, England, Austria, Spain, Italy, &c, all on our heads together, since one of them has done such damage in Mexico, and another looks stiff on the West
