SYMPATHY WITH PERU Great Mecting at the Retiro. The largest assumblage seen for my festivals, was that of Sanday, consened by the Club Puchlo, as a mani festation in favour of Peru in the actual question with Spain. As might be ex ling of foreigners, animated, perhaps, postly by curiosity, but many also by sympathy for South American Inde pendence, It is to be regretted that the intemperate and even insolent tone of the speakers alienated many friends, and there was a marked absence of enthusiasm attending the allusions to the "rotten kingdoms of Eurone."

The hour appointed was noon, but when we arrived there were hardly 400 persons in the Plaza Retico, standing in knots about the statue of General San Martin, Among these we noticed the Editors of the "Tribuna" and Pueblo," Cant. MansillaSor, Bilbao, and a few other literary and forensie celebrities. At half-nast twalve, the of reing much incremed, two bands of innitary were stationed in front of the statue, and one of them played the National Hymn, while a battery of four nieces fired a salute from the bill over-ne o'clock General Yriarte and other heroes of the Independence arrived on the ground, but were no saluted with a single viva. A table the railing of the statue, served for a platform. As the solves in a hundred windings; the cities and hamlets are seen as in groups, we can count the roads and vays uniting them with each other, and the whole panorama is highly interesting. The different productions of the earth are readily distinguished by their variety of hue and shade. A field of corn is easily discernible from a grass meadow, a forest from a poyard. Passing 500 yards, the proportions of each object diminish st sensibly : men look like insects, and here also the atmosphere becomes very cold. ### PRESIDENT MITRES SPEECH

 Citizens! As an American and an Argentino, I join with all my heart in the generous sympathics manifested by sister republic. As a ruler also I idenments, because they spring from a right winciple which offends no one, and are therefore legitimate and peaceful. Ame rica once spoke to the world with the caudons of Chacabuco and Maypu fired by the here at the foot of whose statue you have just assembled to register a vote of sympathy for the inde endence of the New World. At pre sent we must speak with the voice of a free people, mightier and more irresistible than the voice of artillery. Let the Argentine people pronounce for reason, justice, and order, and the whole world will appland our voice.
